

DEDICATION

In an attempt to express our gratitude for your kindly interest and faithful guidance through our High School years, we the seniors of 1947 wish to dedicate to you, Miss Greenawalt, this annual. You will live forever in the hearts of all who come to know you.

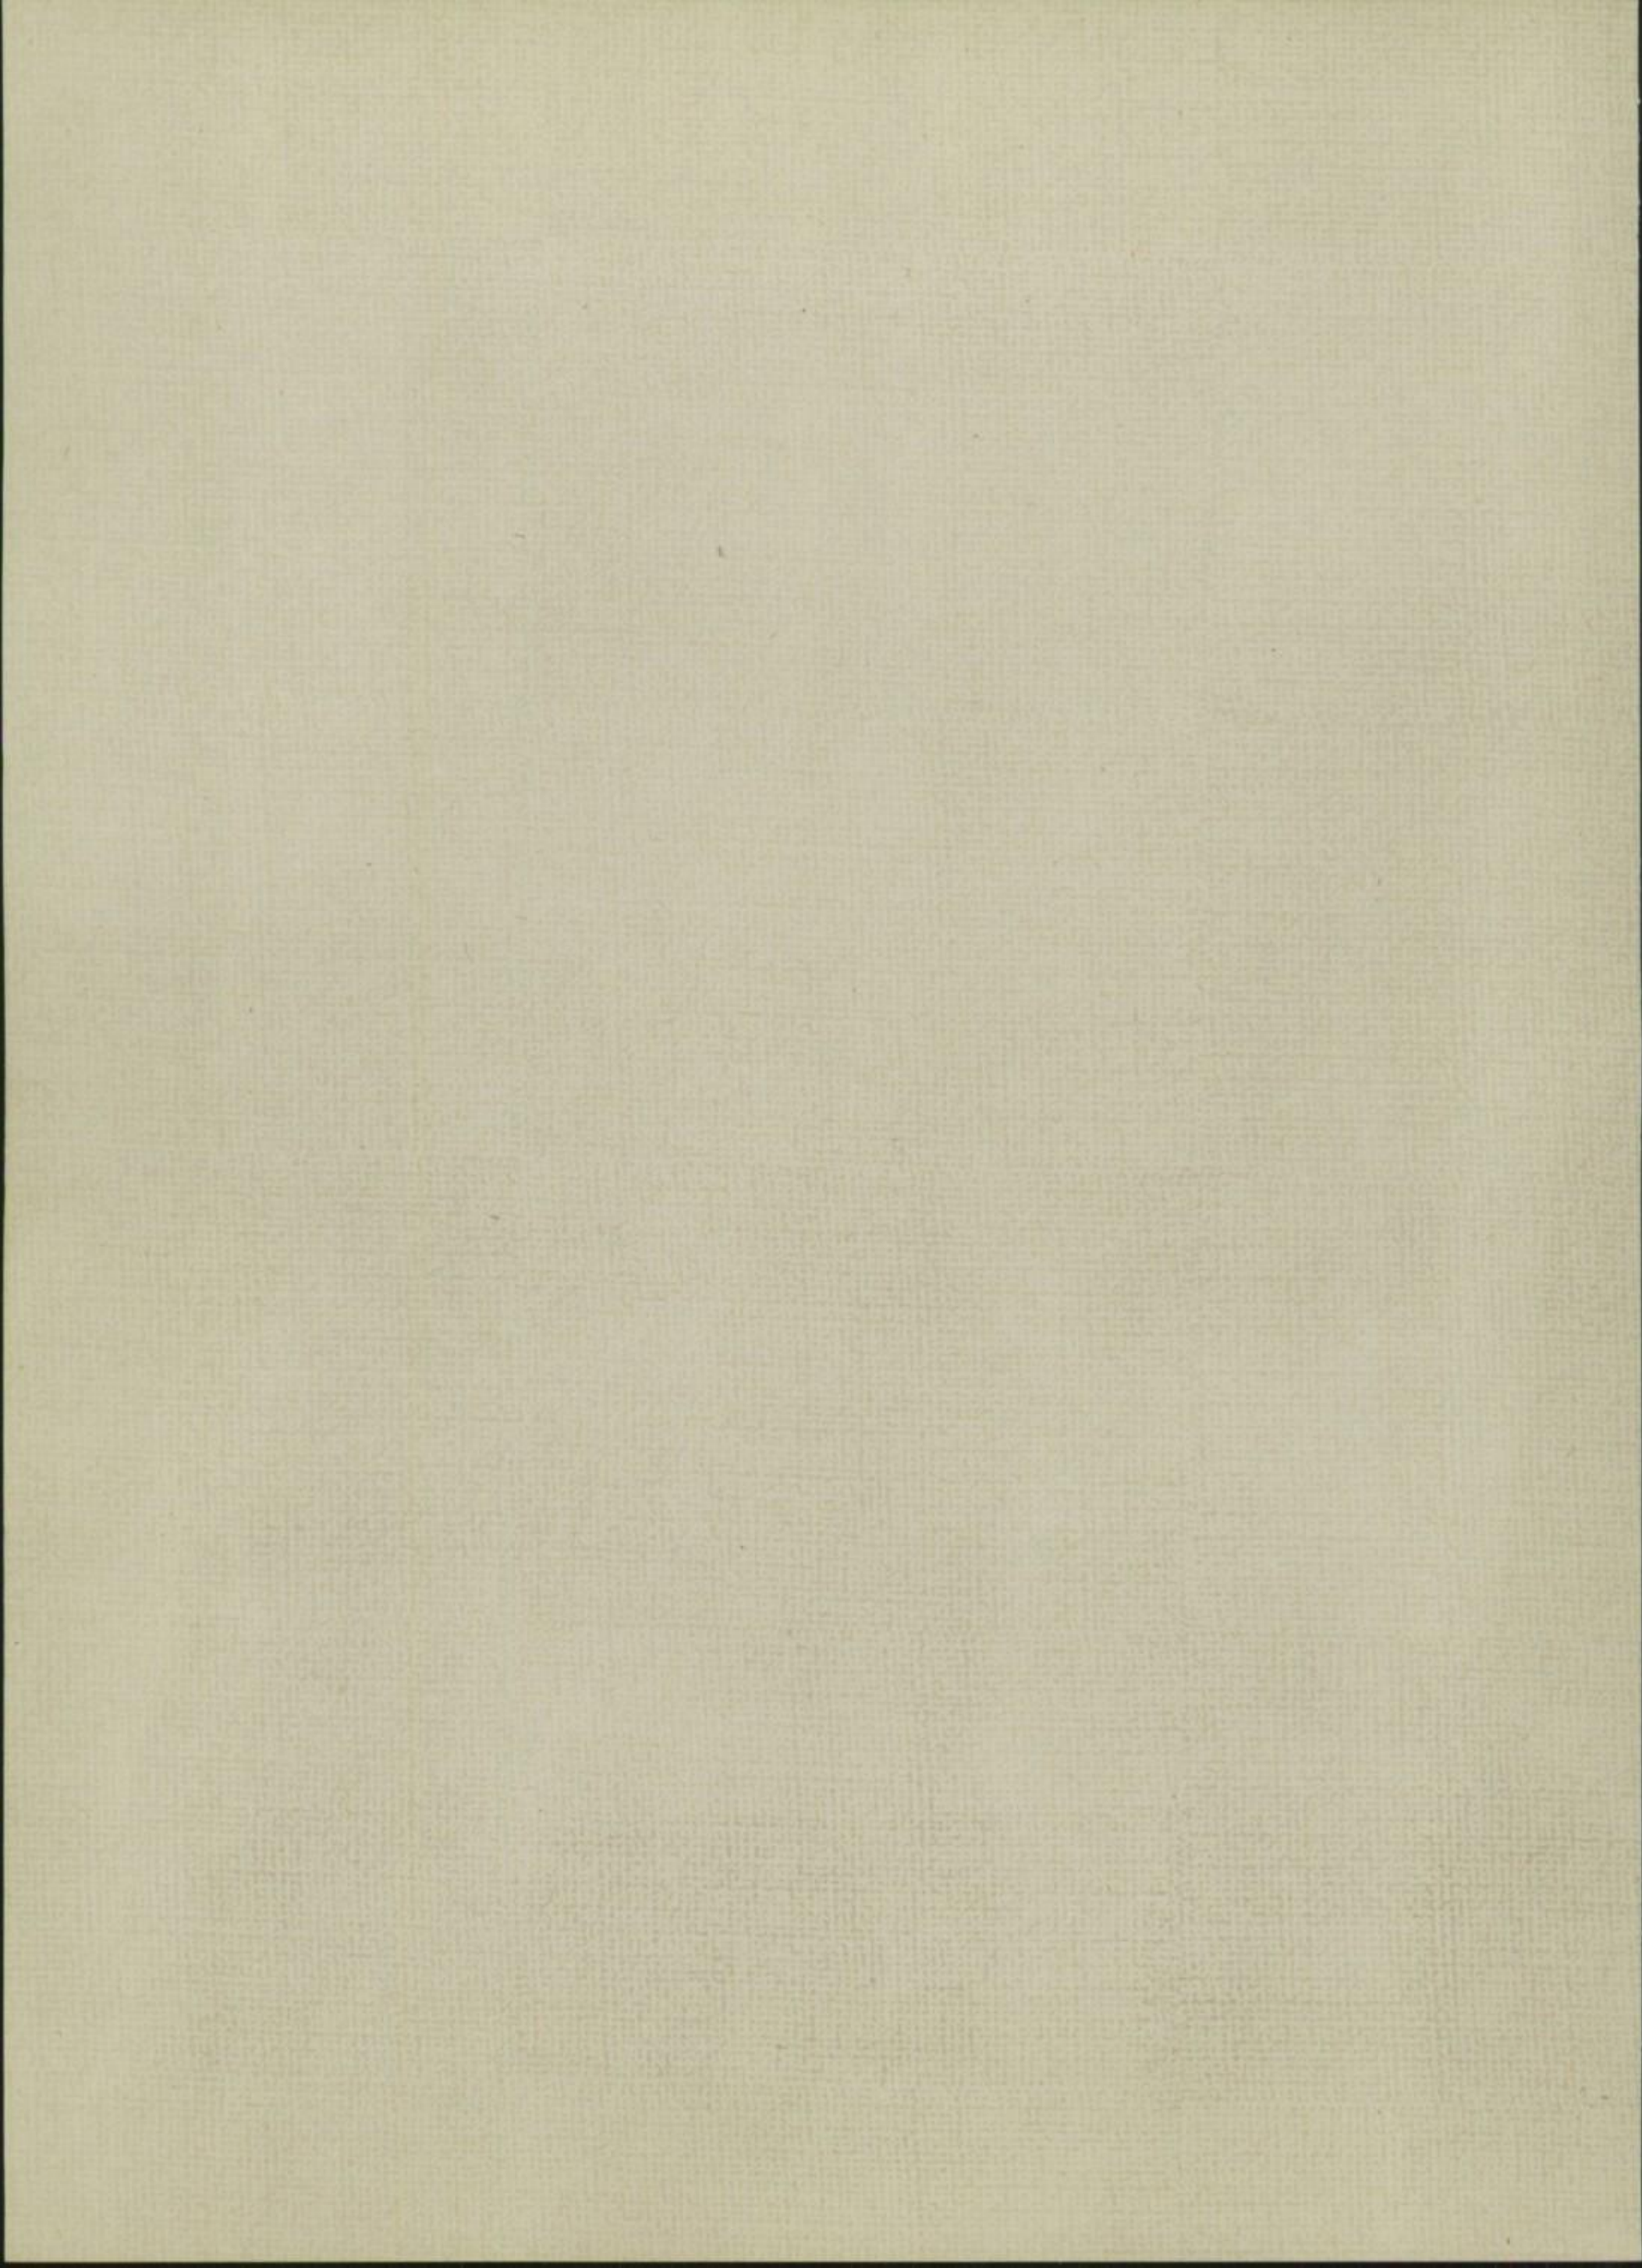

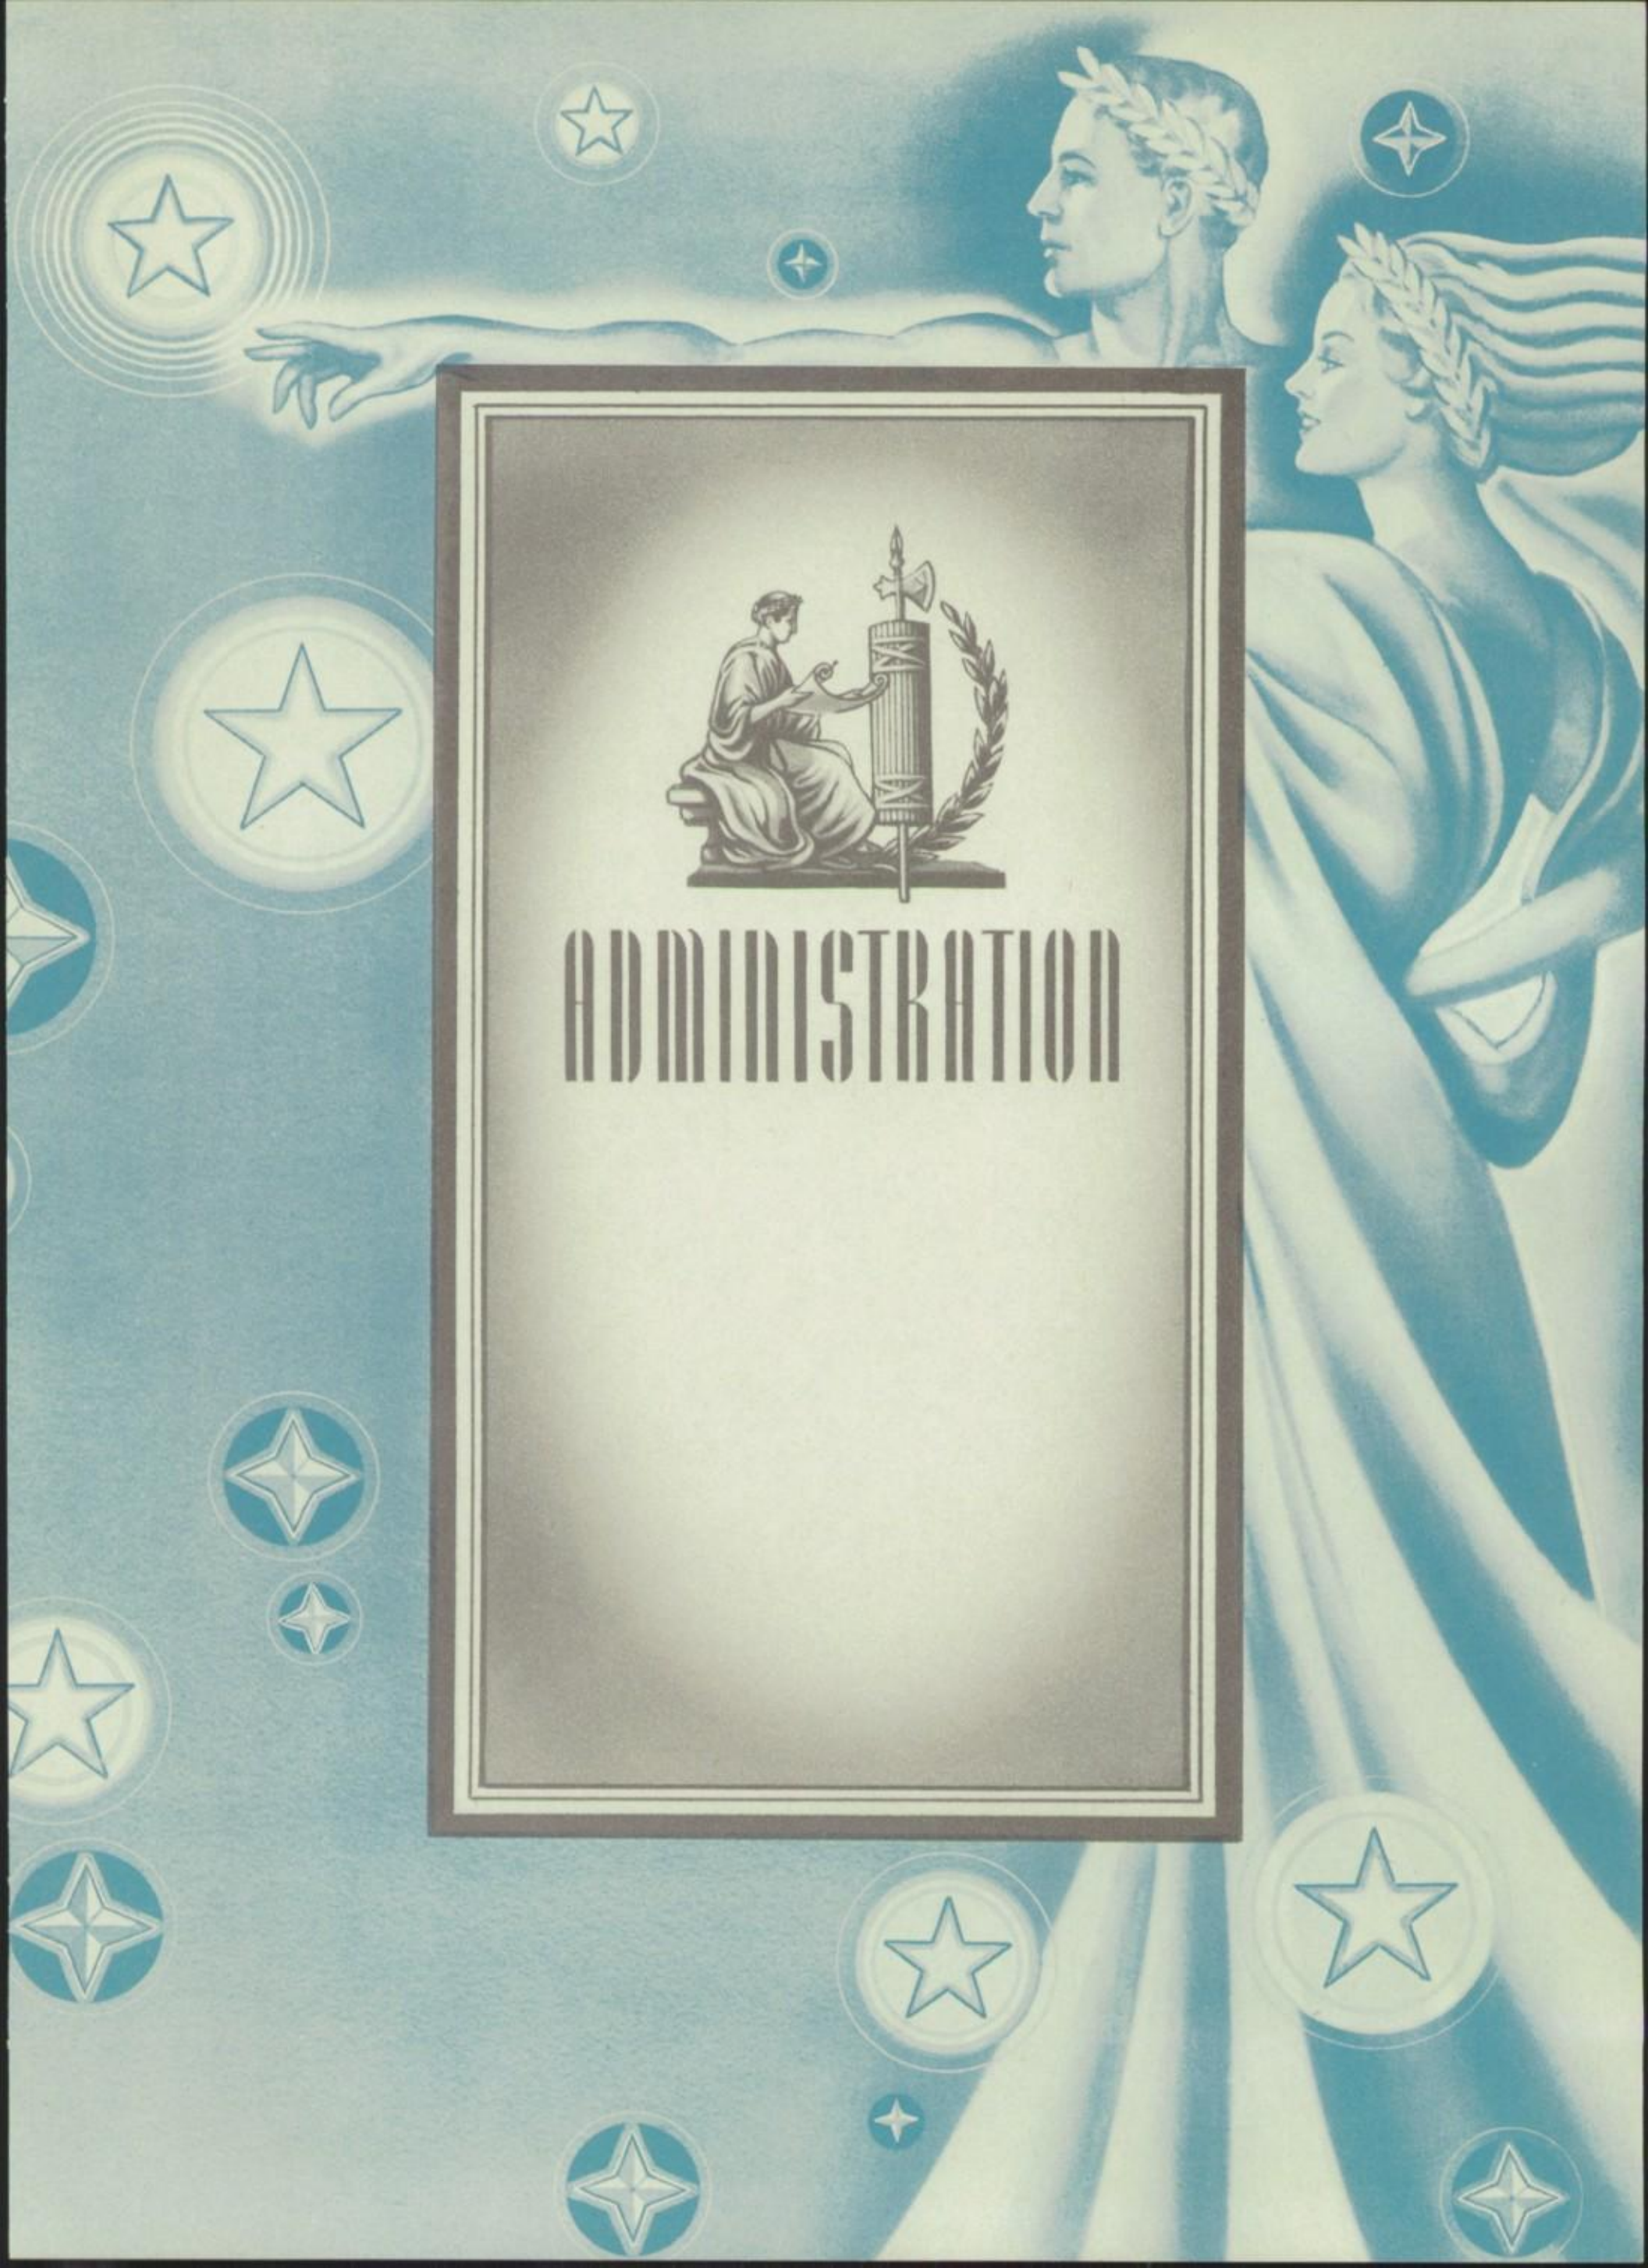

FOREWARD

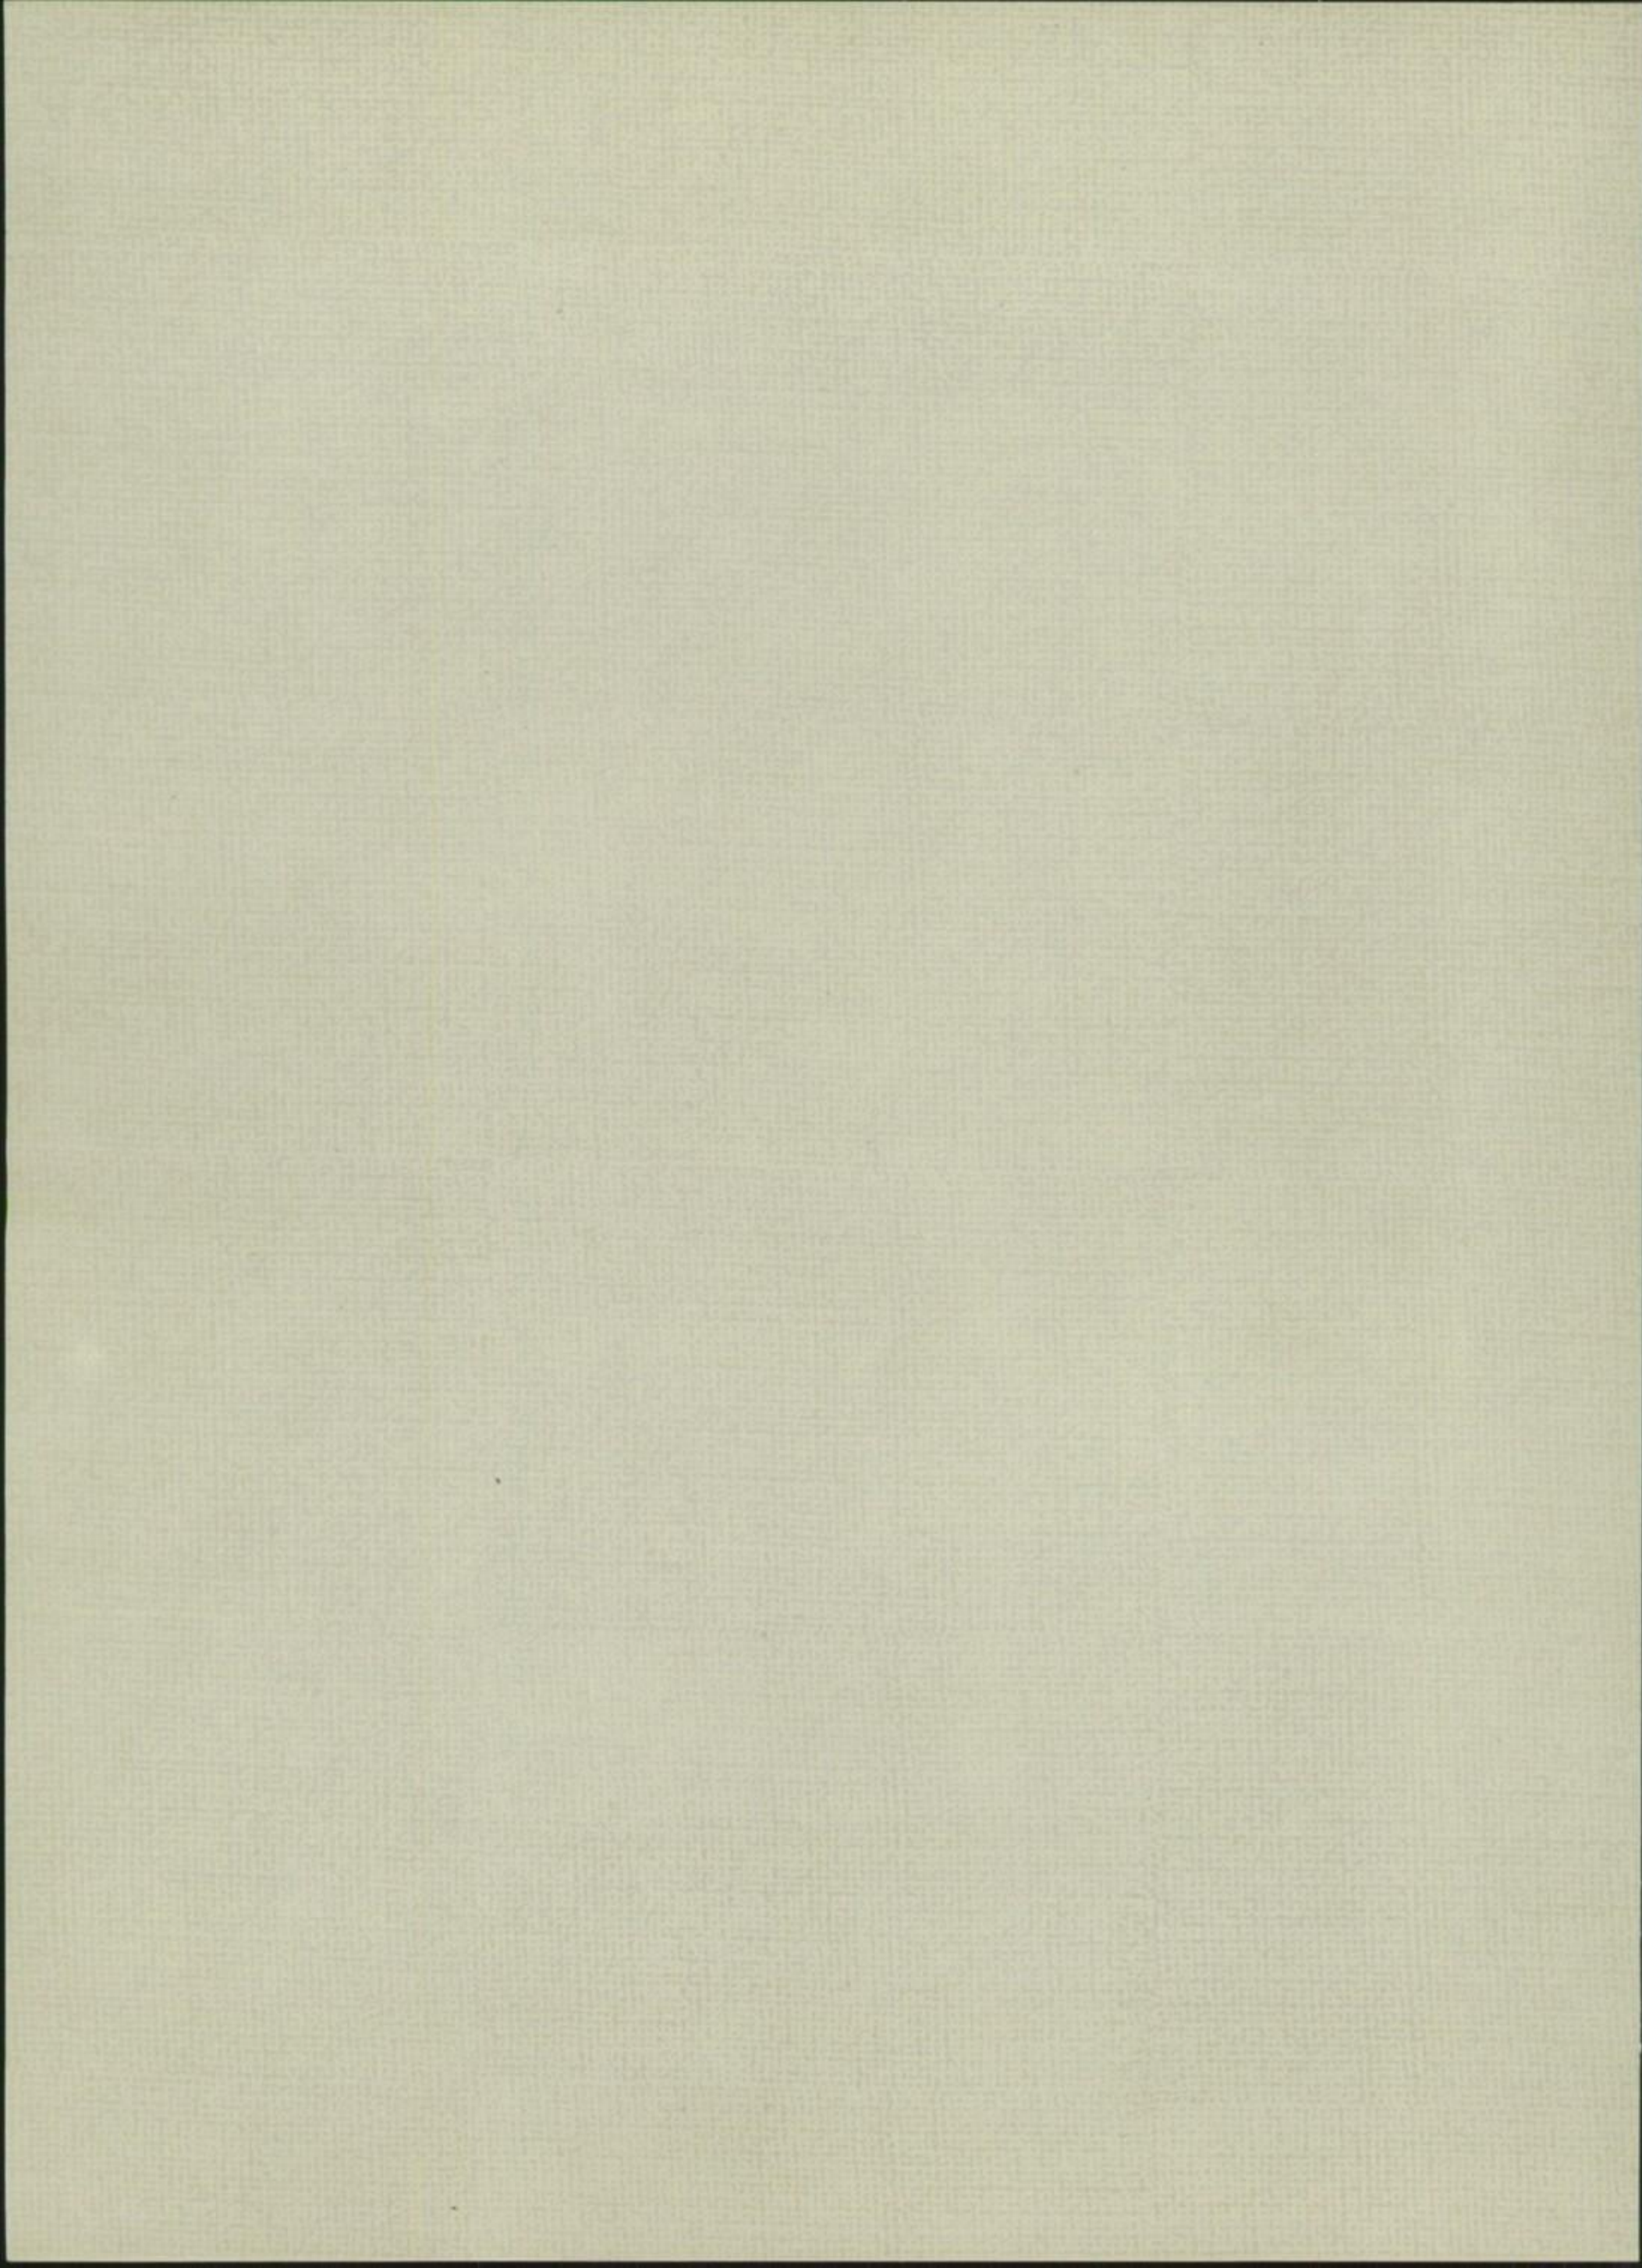

This is Holton High Schools second annual, presented by the seniors of 1947. We sincerely hope this book will bring to us, in the future, memories of good old "47".

We hope that you, the readers, will get as much enjoyment from the "Styx" as we have had in preparing it.

ADMINISTRATION

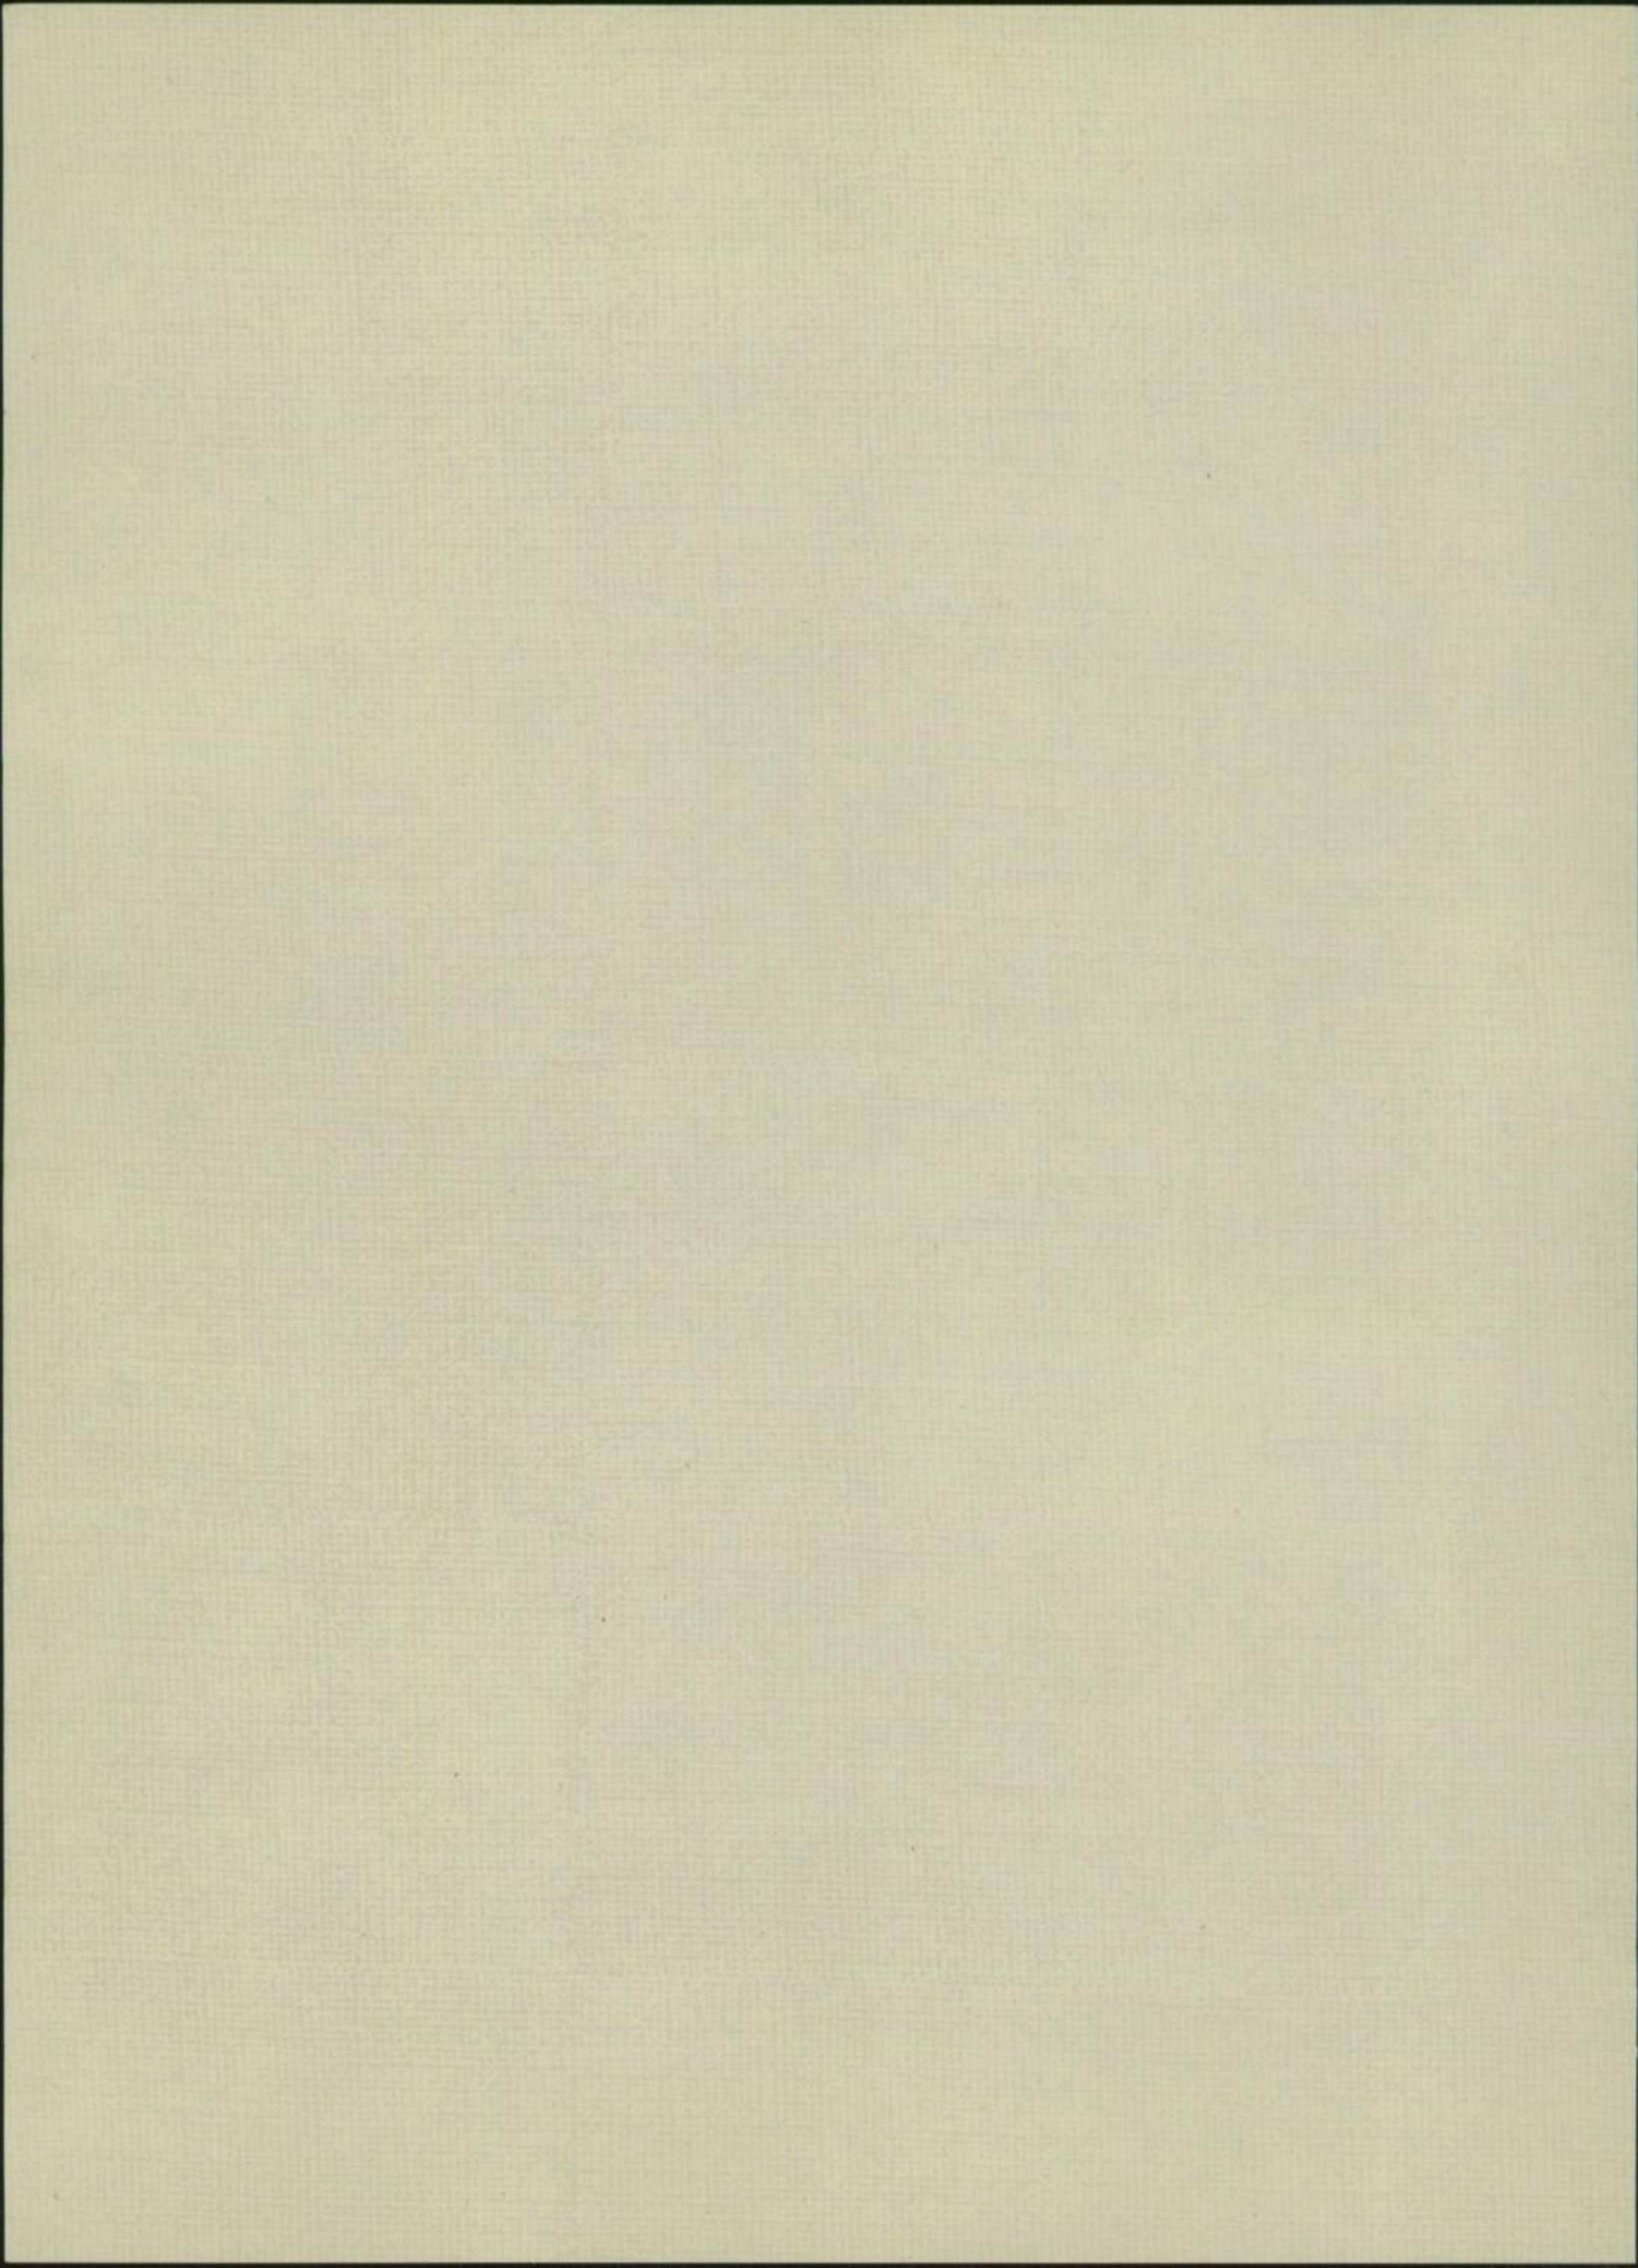

Our Teachers

"May they always be right, but Our Teachers right or wrong."

Miss Greenawalt, Miss Moore, Mr. Robinson, Mrs. DeHart, Miss Zupa.

SENIORS

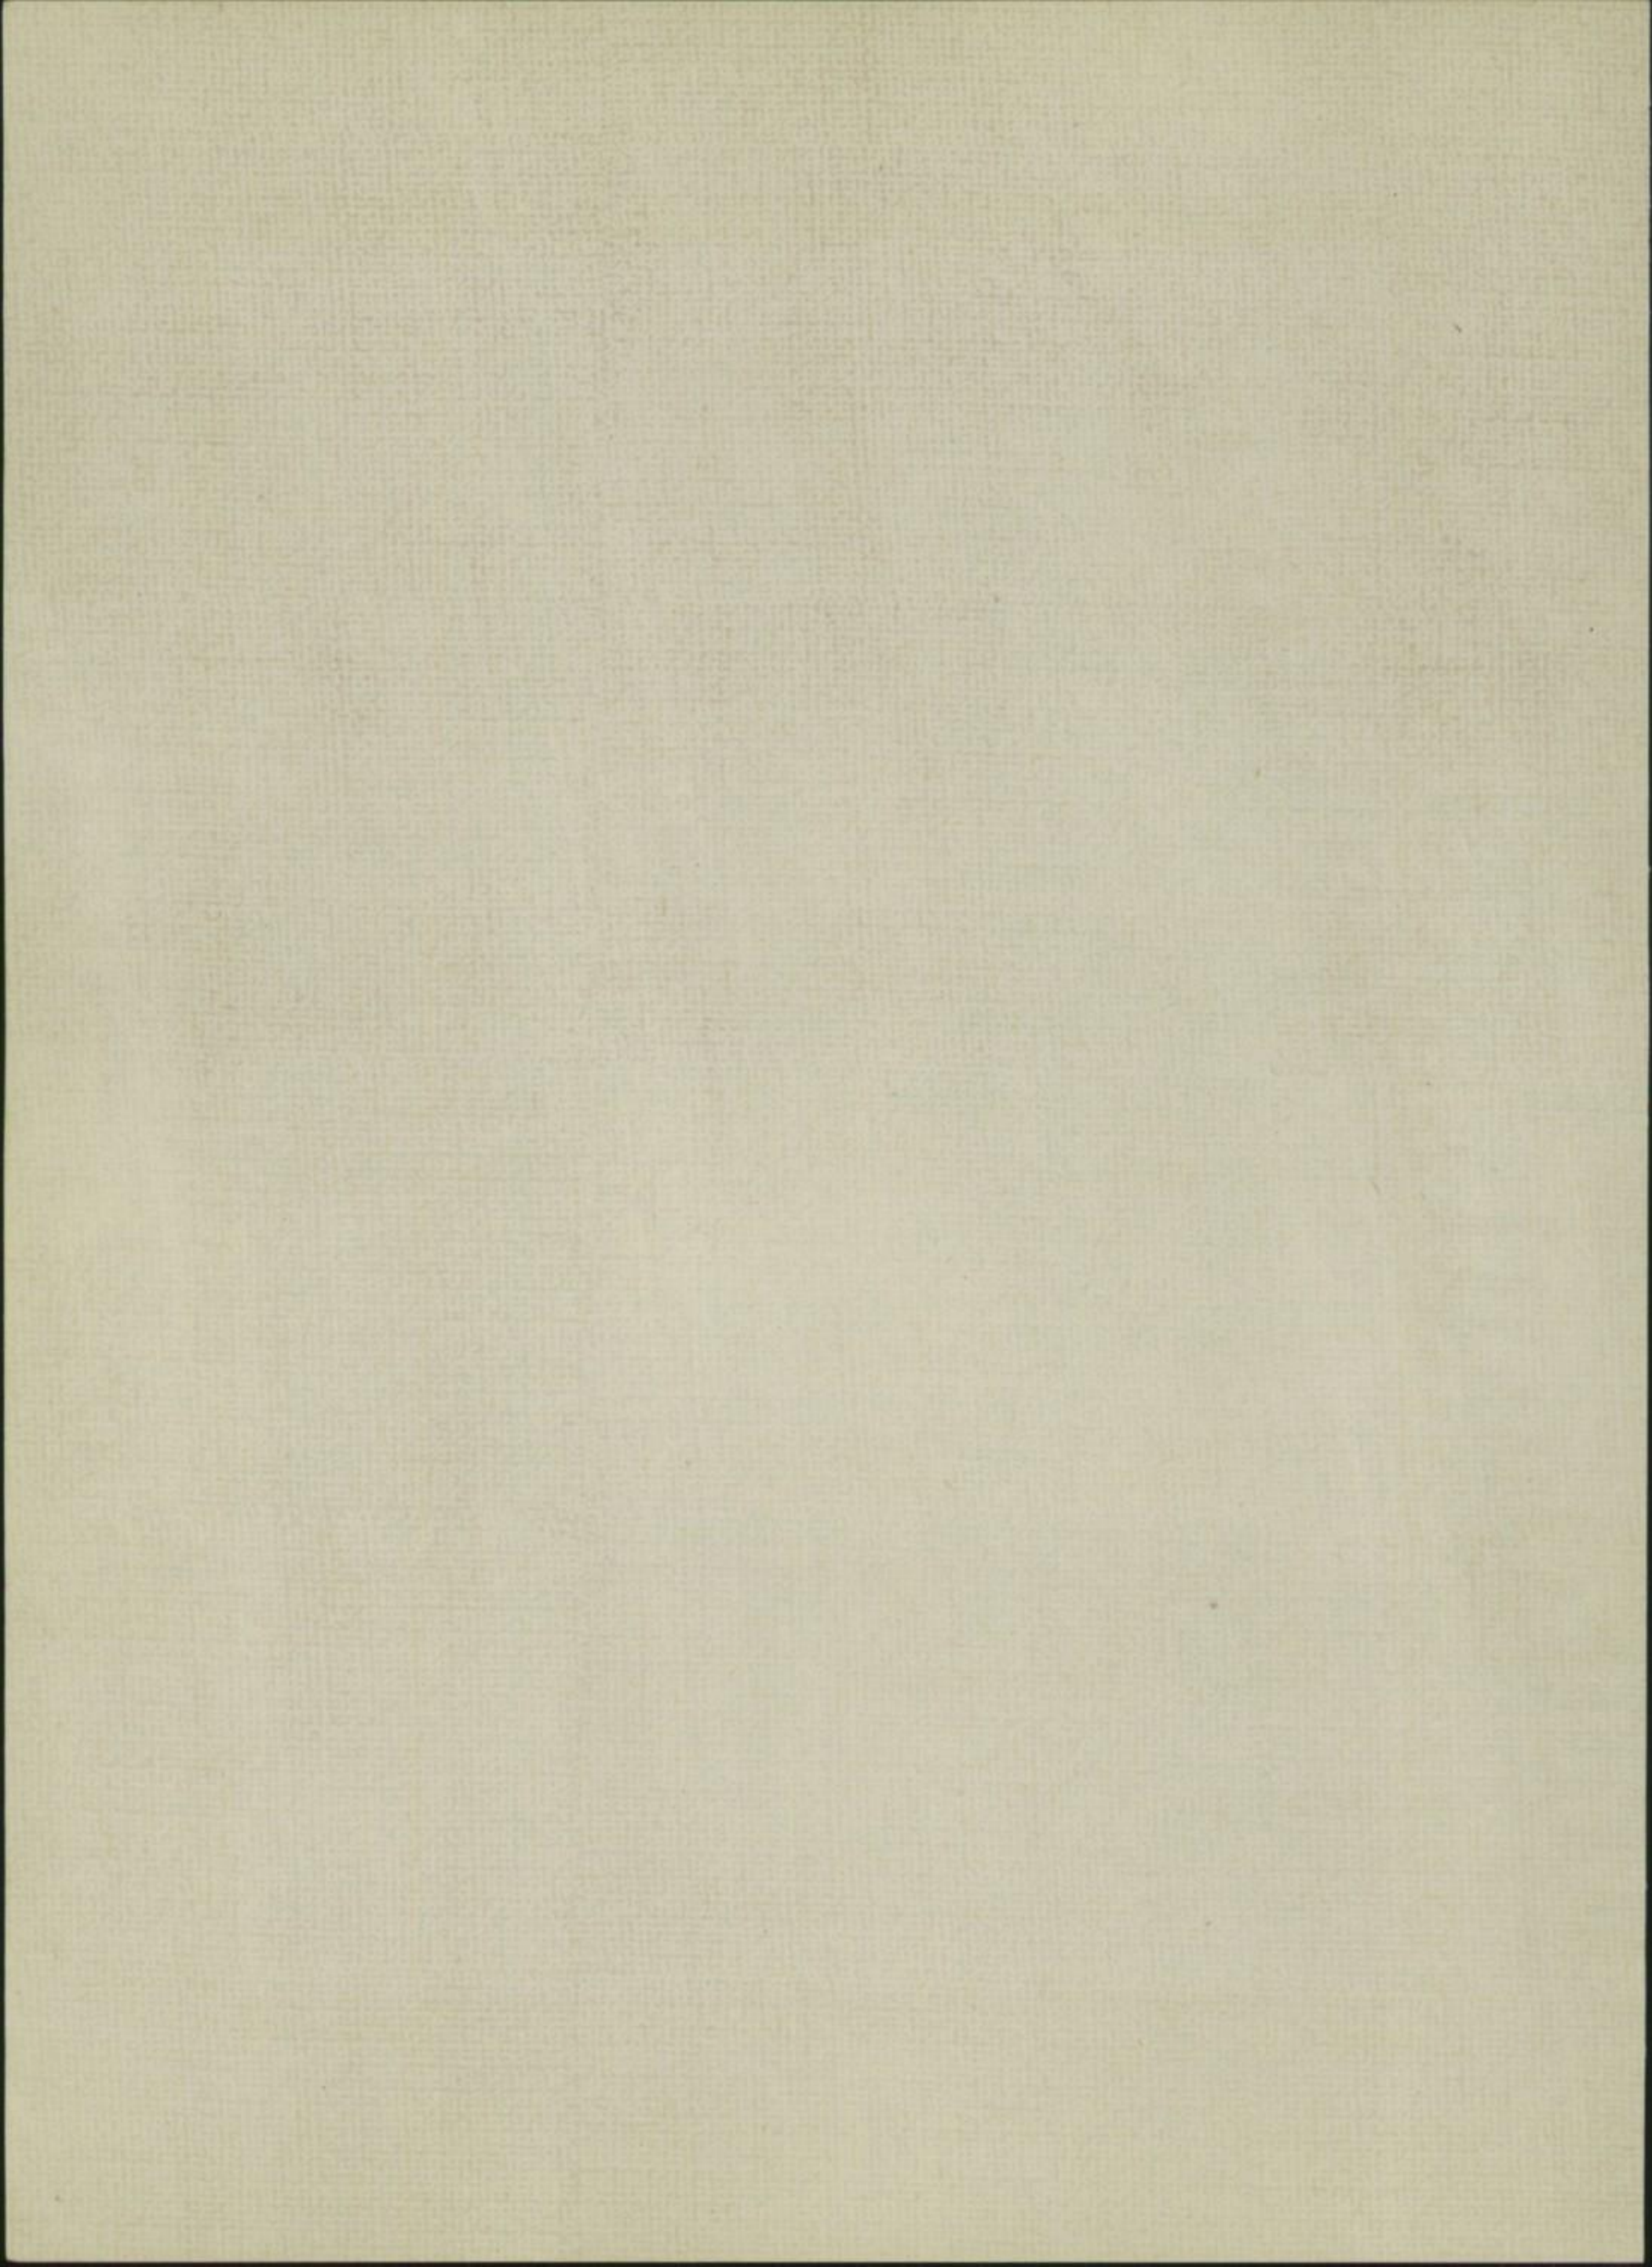

ONWARD

We have closed the doors behind us,
As many a class has done.
We the Seniors of "47",
Our struggle through school is won.

Our appreciation is said in thanks,
For the helpful guidance we've had,
To our teachers, parents, and friends,
And all who have made us glad.

No matter where we go from here,
Or what we plan to do,
Our memories of H. H. S.
Will help to see us through.

CLASS WILL

Jean Gibson leaves all her love letters from Bob to her future husband.

Bernadine Carr leaves her one third of the record-player to Evelyn Cooper 'cause she likes to argue too.

Bob Kru leaves his horse to Andy Miller so that he can ride to school.

Mary Syers leaves all her Jims' to Dolly.

Forry Young Forry Young was going to leave his Bell Bottoms but decided to keep them so he leaves his hitch in the Navy to Max Noble.

Eugene Goodhue leaves his quiet attitude and shyness toward public appearance to the Seventh grade.

Lowell Smith leaves his guitar and ability to sing to Elvira Wiggers.

Amy Edsall leaves her poker face to Lester Vermilyea.

Shirley Pyatt leaves her quietness to Eddie Denman--he needs it.

Lorraine Nelson leaves with Paul Blakkan.

Alice Ferguson leaves her ability to study to Arthur Lusk.

Natalie Hart leaves with Mary for "Tooner-ville".

Henrietta Steger leaves her floor walking ability to some proud new father.

Grace Koehler leaves her over-the-shoulder bags to Dorothy Henry.

Rita Freeza leaves with a clear conscience.

Etta Mae Reed leaves her ability to flirt to Warren Syers.

Helen Slater leaves her blonde hair to Carol Nutt.

Eileen Trygstad leaves her ability to play the piano to Delores Young.

We, the Senior class as a whole, leave our ability to get along with one another to the Sophomores, our hamburg sales to the Juniors, peace to Mr. Robinson, our ability to give plays to the Sophs' and Freshies', our Friday night dances to the eighth grade, our ability to carry on a progressive class meeting to any one who needs it, all our love to Miss. Greenawalt, and for our skip day trip in May.

CLASS PROPHECY

July 21, 1950. It is a hot, sultry night. Gee but I'm sleepy. Just got the kids to bed, all twelve of them. Guess I'll take a short nap.

Where am I? I'm in front of a large building with a lot of kids running around. Guess I'll ring the doorbell and find out where I am. Bernadine Carr! What are you doing here? You live here? But why all the kids? Yours! Oh, that's right. I heard you had married Bill and were raising a family. Fifteen seems like an awful lot but you always did say you wanted a big family. Well, I guess I'd better be moving on.

Might as well stop at this restaurant and get a bite to eat. Hmmm! "Bob's Ranchhouse". Bob Kru! I never thought I'd find you in here. You say you own the joint--er--place that is? How's business? You're selling as much horsemeat as ever I see. Who is that nice looking waitress over there--she looks kind of familiar? Rita Freeza? But she used to have black hair. Guess I'll go over and speak to her. Hello Rita. Hear you decided to get married to another guy when Larry stayed over in Germany so long? Oh, you divorced him long ago cause he was cruel to the cat, and married again. Don't blame you a bit. Then you're second husband left you? That's too bad, you sure have had you're troubles. Have to be going now. Bye.

Wonder what this next place is. It's got a fancy name anyway. "Cutup Castle" "Where the dumb meat to bum" Eugene Goodhue, Prop. In neon signs at that! Might as well go in and see Gene, it's been a long time. Hi ya Gene old kid, how's Mavis and the kids? Oh, those are you're triplets back on the counter. Isn't that Nat Hart back by the stage door in the handkerchiefs? So she's your new dancer! Heard she never got married because she was afraid it would ruin her-----career? But where is that beautiful music coming from? You one man band and singer? Say that sounds kinda like---it is! Lowell Smith with his guitar. I heard he was giving concerts a while ago. You must have paid him a high salary to get him to work for you. He is the rage of the country now. Well, just stopped in to say hello, so I'll be leaving now.

Might as well turn the corner here and see what's sown this street. Goodness! This must be a big town, to have an opera hall. Wonder what is on. Well, for heavens sake! This must be old home week or some thing. It says on this sign, "Grace Koehler" world celebrated operatic soprano." What will I see next! I knew Grace was taking singing lessons after she left school, but I always thought her piano was more important to her than her voice. Well, she sure did okay by herself! Good luck, Grace.

Here's a Beauty Salon. Guess I'll go in and get my nails fixed before I go on. What is this big banner plastered all over the window? Better read it. "This week only! Direct from Hollywood and MGM! Mary Syers, the GREAT hair stylist!" Mary certainly realized her ambition. She always did want to do that sort of stuff. Never dreamed she'd be so good at it tho.

Guess I'll go in and say hello. Remember me Mary? Your cousin Eileen! Of course you do. It sure is good to see you again. How's everything Fine! So you finally found the one and only Jim? And Married him. Any little Jims and Marys? Two of each? That's nice. Ever see any thing of Ken these days? Died of old age, huh? That's too bad. Well I really have to run now, but it sure was nice meeting you again. Thanks for the nice compliment about my latest book. Didn't know anybody read them!

Geef! I must be dreaming, but it sure is nice to see all the old gang again.

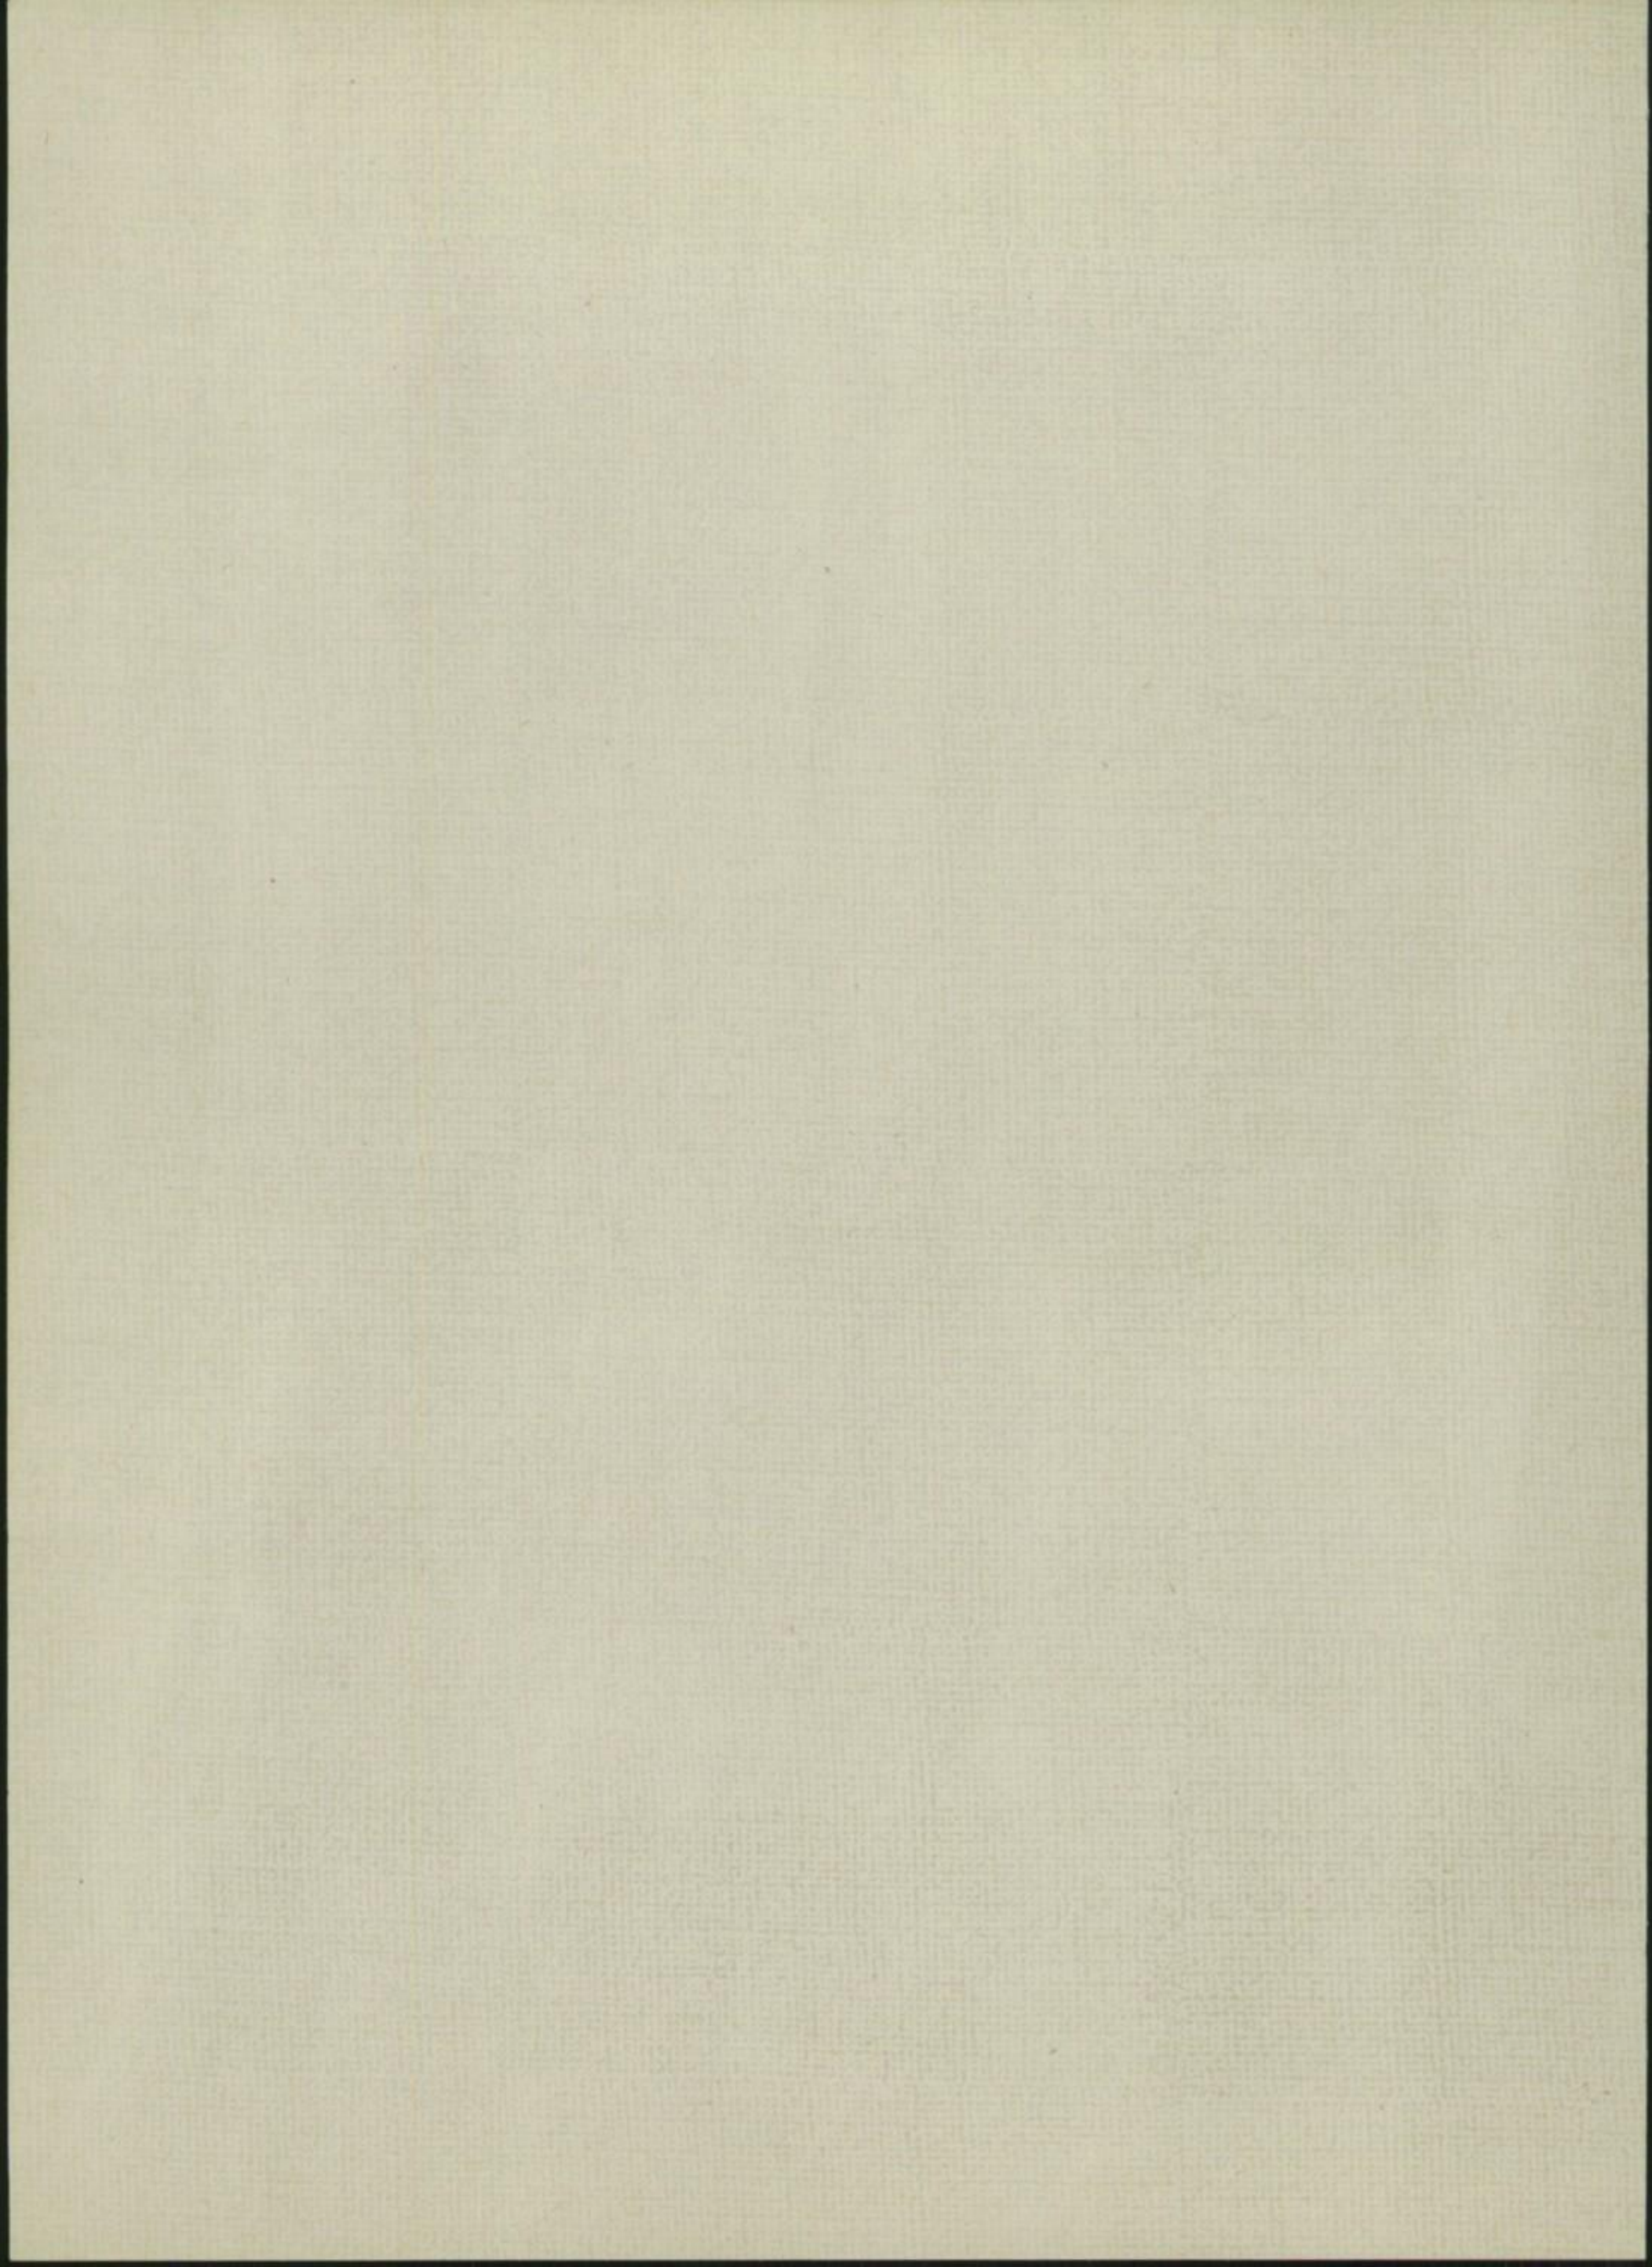

Guess I'll buy a newspaper and see what is going on in the world. Big headlines today. "Admiral Young reorganizes the Navy Department!" For crying out loud! So Forry is an Admiral now! He always did like the Navy. And what's this, "He is being assisted by his very capable secretary Alice Ferguson". Always did wonder what happened to Alice. Well, she certainly has my sympathy, if she has to assist Forry. That's job enough for two people. Here are some ads. "Live in comfort with never a worry about men. Apply at "Henriettas Hen Home" The place for all women". Holy Smokes! So Henry was serious about becoming an old maid. Never thought she meant it. She always was unpredictable tho. Here's another. "Learn modern and classical music the way it should be played. Take piano lessons from Lorraine Nelson Scychgehrelaysi". Golly, didn't know she had married a foreigner. Heard she was making a lot of money.

Here's the leading theater. New stage show coming next week. Something good, I hope. "Amy Edsall, newest, funniest comedian. Coming with her whole radio show". That sounds good. I remember now! Amy was voted the wittiest in the school contest. She always was a card. I see Helen Slater's latest picture is on now. Certainly was glad to hear that she had made good in the movies. She always was a beauty. Guess she had real acting ability too.

Well, here's the High School. Haven't been here in ages. What was it that I heard awhile ago? Oh, yes! It was that Shirley Pyatt had married the President. Holton sure has enlarged in the last few years. He certainly was a good catch. Hope they will be happy. Etta Mae Reed is a teacher there too. She's a second Einstien. Heard she discovered where the third dimension is. She always was good at that. We expected great things of her and she didn't disappoint us.

Planes! Must be an airport near. Oh yes, here it is. Why that's Jean Gibson getting into that plane! I heard it took her a long time but she finally became a stewardess. She's really flying high these days.

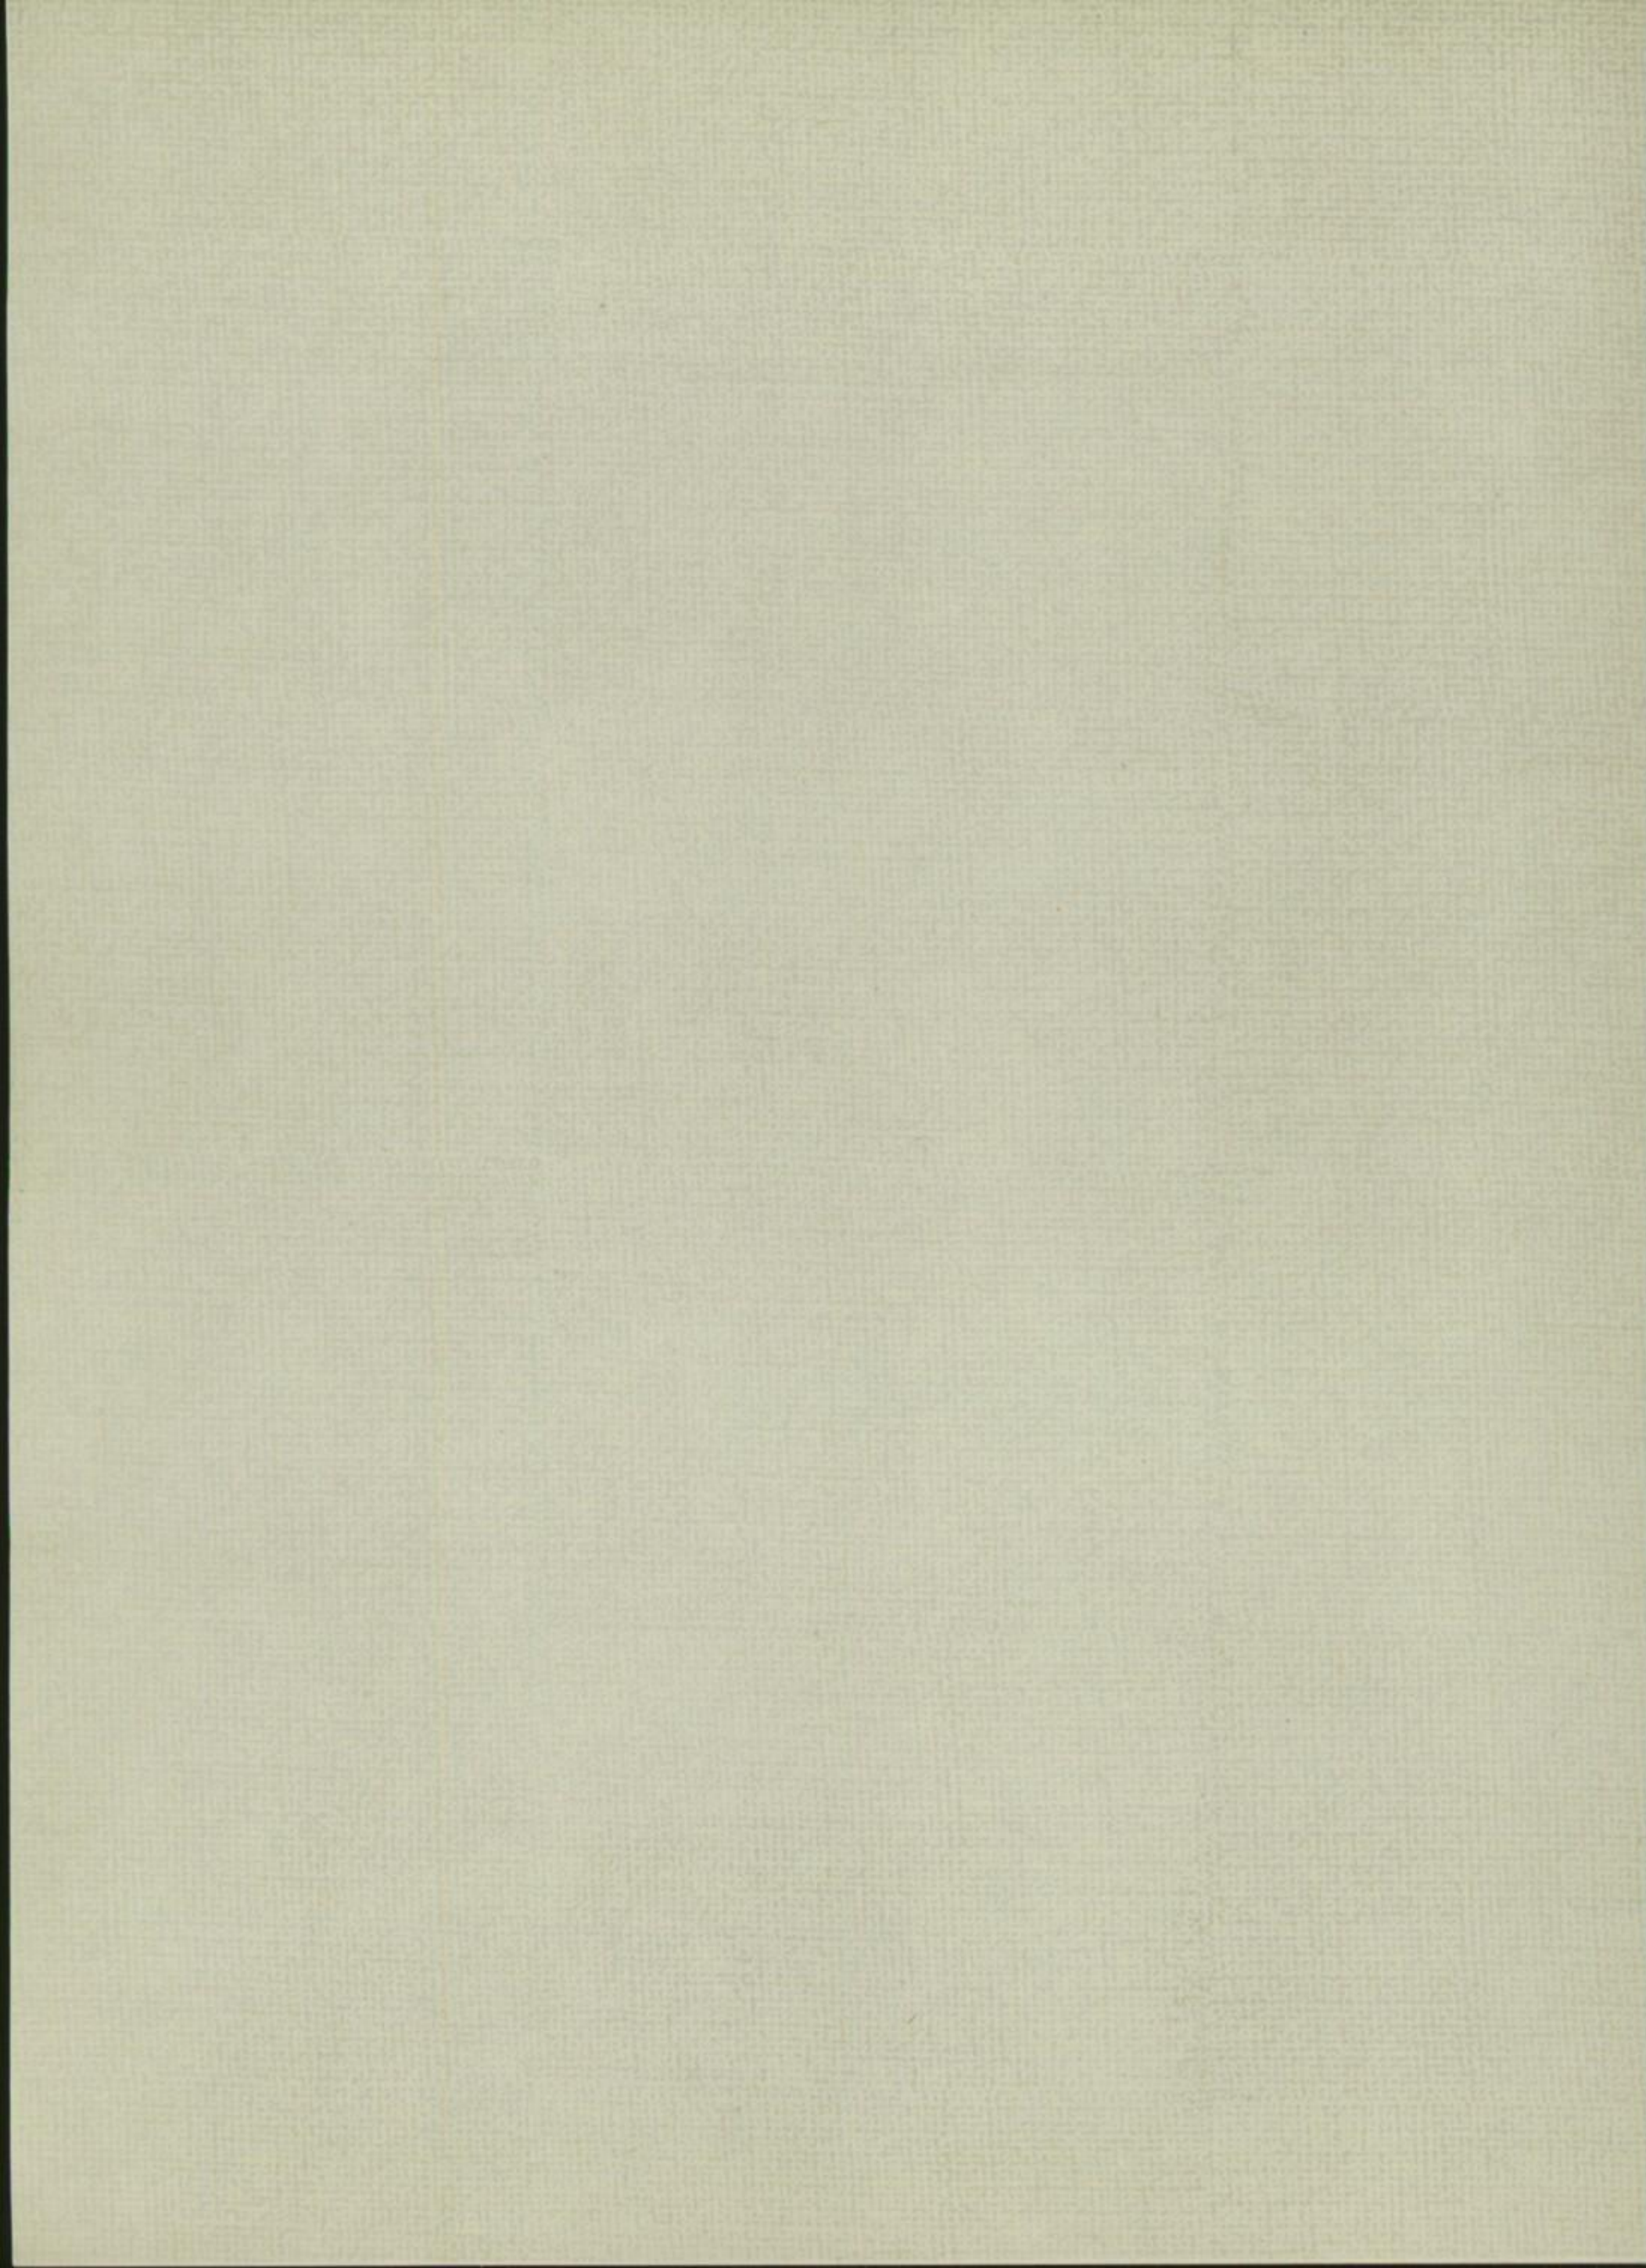

Heavens! I must have been dreaming, and what a dream! Glad I didn't wake up before I found out what all the kids were doing. Well, guess I'd better go to bed. It's a big day tomorrow, what with starting my new book and taking care of the noisy twelve!

HOLTON BOY AND GIRL SCOUT TROOPS

A new boy scout troop has been organized in Holton by a committee consisting of Rev. Ellsworth Ruble, chairman, William Rossiter, Case Skidemore, Thane Butcher, and Donald Yoeman, assistants. The troop has been divided into three patrols and rivalries have been started. Hikes are planned.

The patrol leaders are Paul Blakken, Lester Vermilion, and Wayne Richards.

A new intermediate Girl Scout troop has been formed in Holton during the past month. Fifteen girls have joined and they will soon be ready to pass their tenderfoot tests. Mrs. William Rossiter and Mrs. Frank Noble are the leaders. The sponsoring group is the W.S.C.S. of the Holton Methodist church. The troop committee consists of Mrs. Thomas Hermance, chairman; Mrs. Donald Yoeman, Mrs. Max Monette, Mrs. Stanley Morrison, and Mrs. Elwood Kempf.

BANQUETS

The Junior and Senior Banquet followed an Indian theme. The decorations included tom-toms, canoes, and wigwams. Card tables were placed about the room around a campfire.

The Juniors and their guests were served

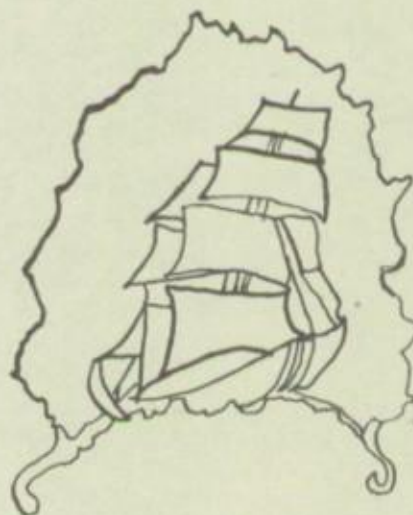

- Tomato Juice
- Roast Turkey--Dressing
- Mashed Potatoes--Gravy
- Buttered Corn
- Fruit Salad
- Olives--Celery
- Rolls and Butter
- Pumpkin Pie with Whipped Cream
- Coffee

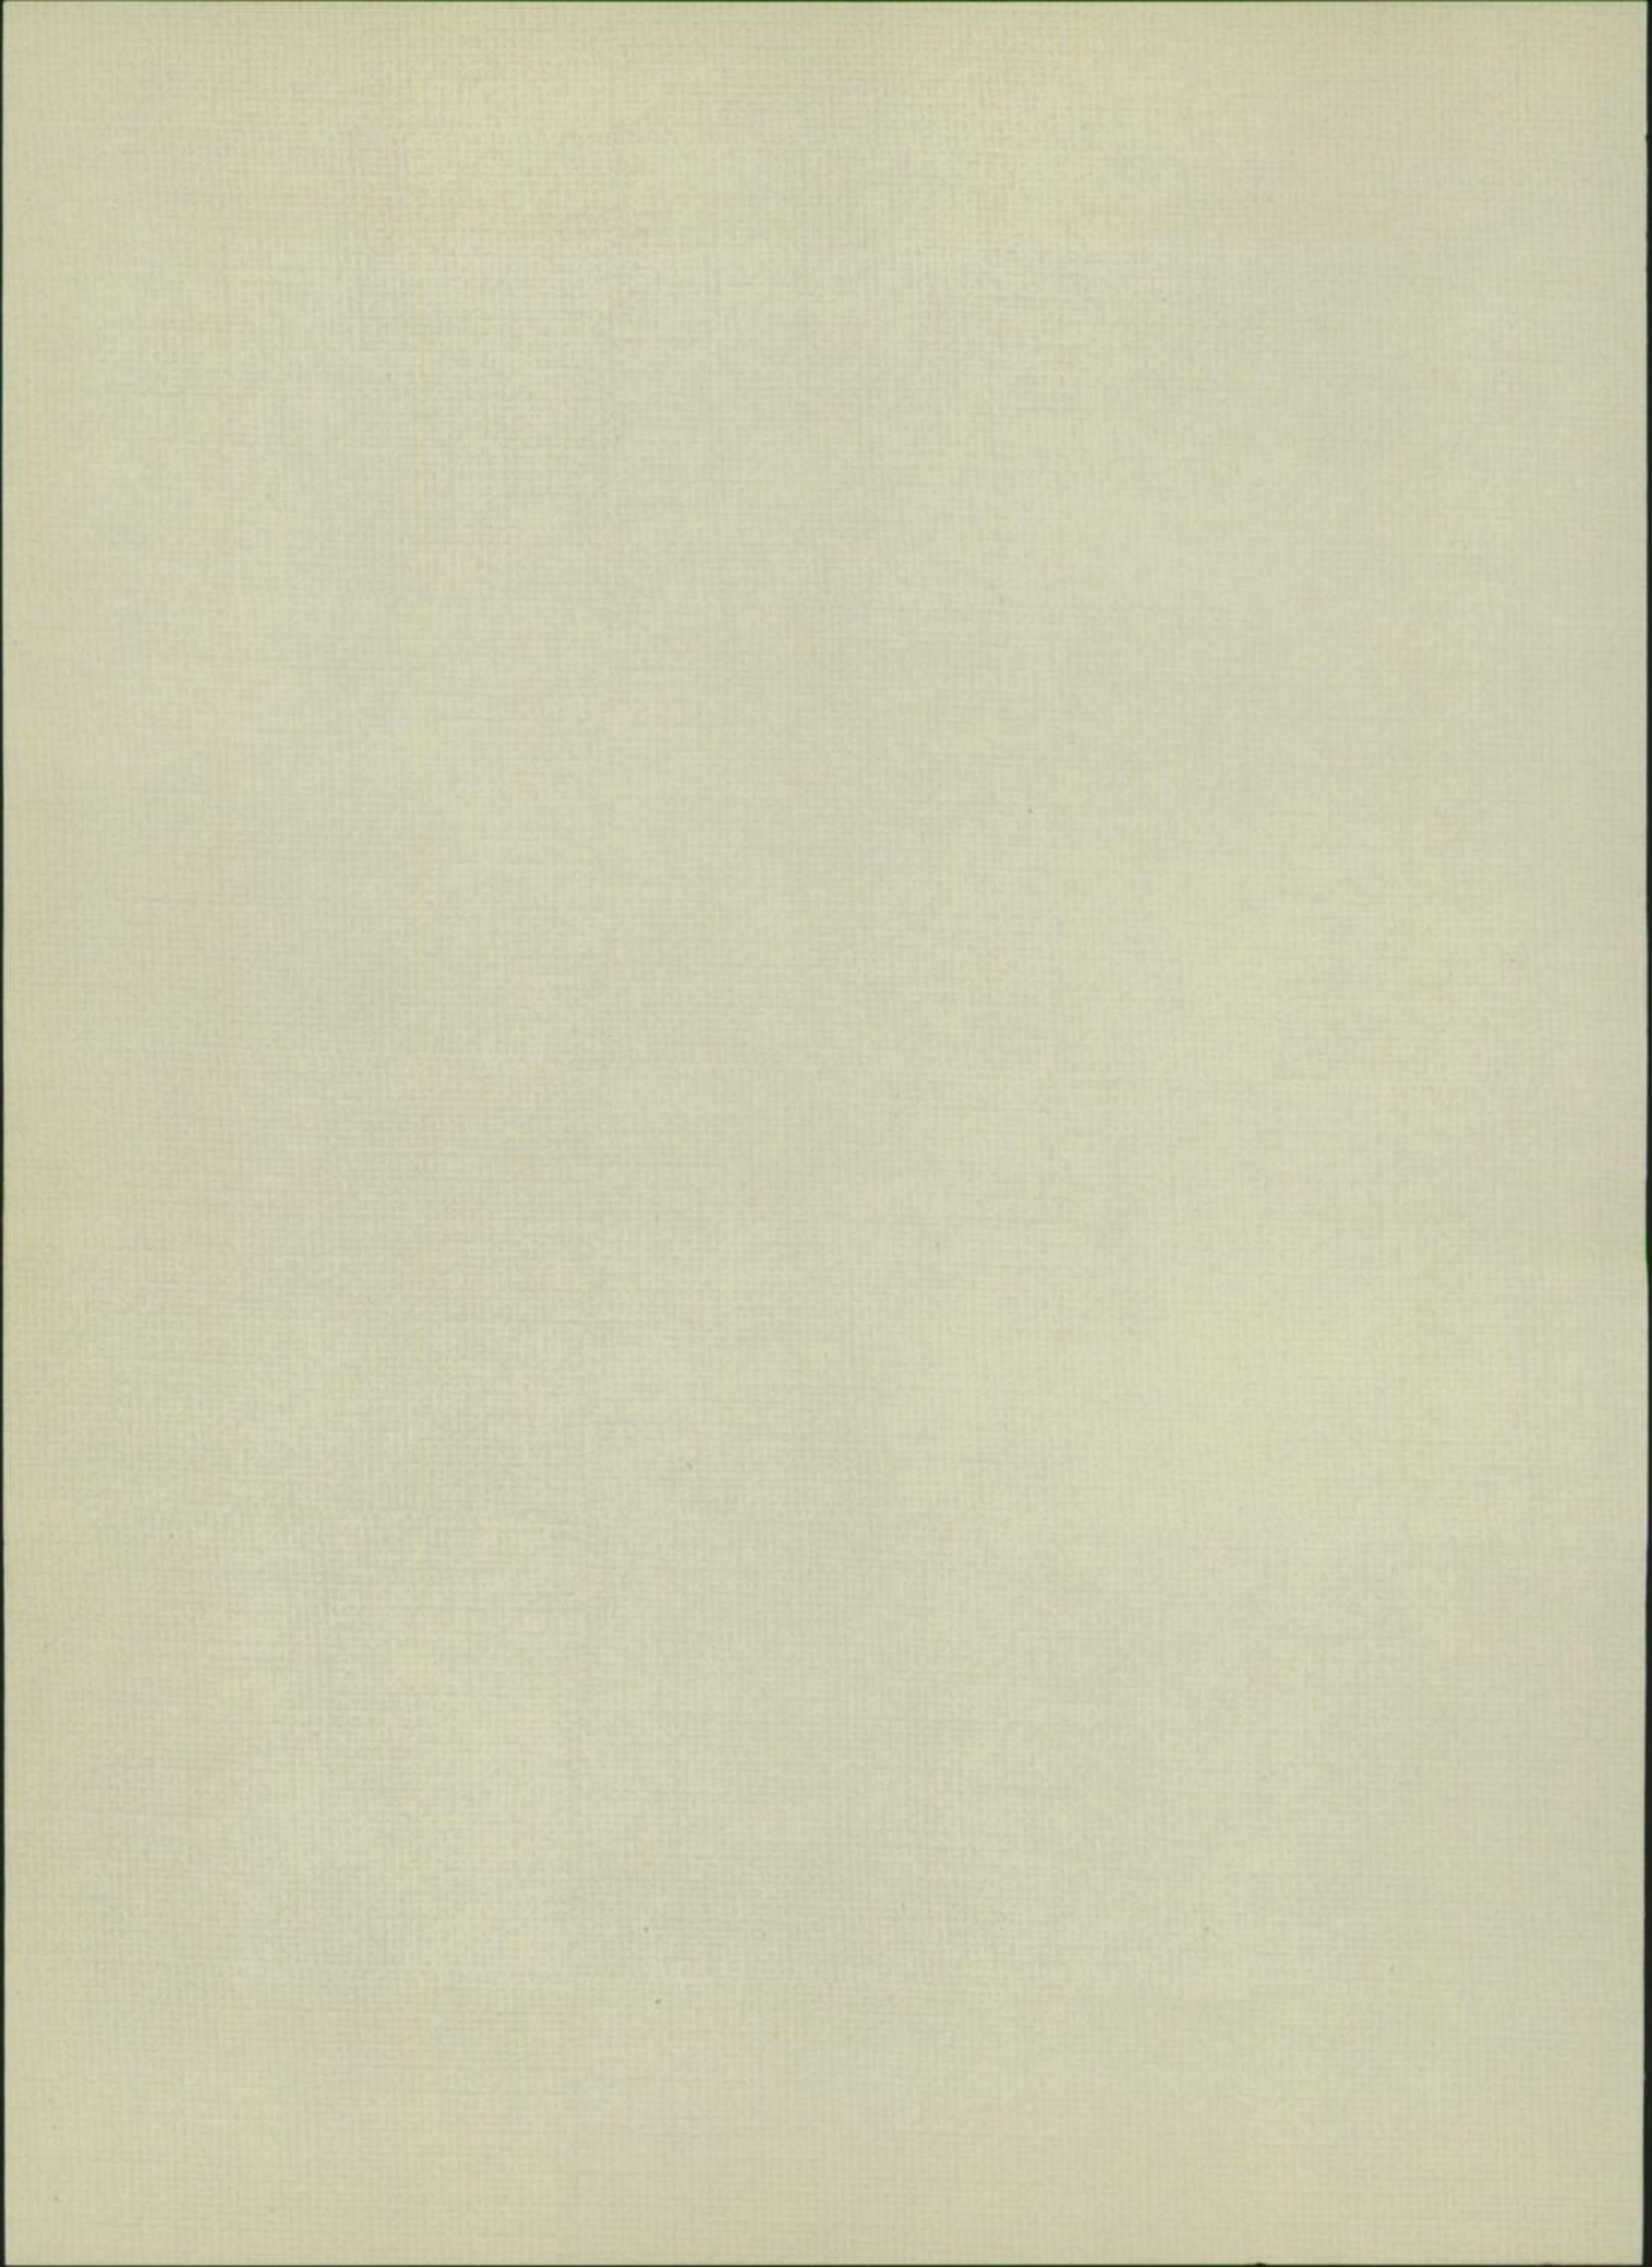

by the Sophomore girls.

We were entertained by Doris and Norma Oelund, and group singing. Eileen Trygstad was toast mistress, and Joy Morrison gave the welcome, to which Gerry Cooper responded.

The plans for the Junior and Senior Banquet to be given April 19, 1947 are not as yet complete, but the following has been disclosed by the Juniors. A nautical theme was chosen. They tell us that the following menu will be served:

- Tomato Juice
- Swiss Steak
- Mashed Potatoes--Gravy
- Escalloped Corn
- Apple Salad
- Rolls and Butter
- Olives and Celery
- Cake and Ice Cream
- Coffee

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

PIE ALAMODE PARTY

Apple pie and ice cream sounds good doesn't it? It did to the Dramatics class too - so - they held a party with big eats-- one fourth of a pie covered with a half pint of ice cream. Good, huh!

RELIEF PARTIES

By relief we mean the casts were so happy that their plays were a success that parties were held after them. Mistakes were laughed at and teacher's troubles were over.

PING PONG TOURNAMENT

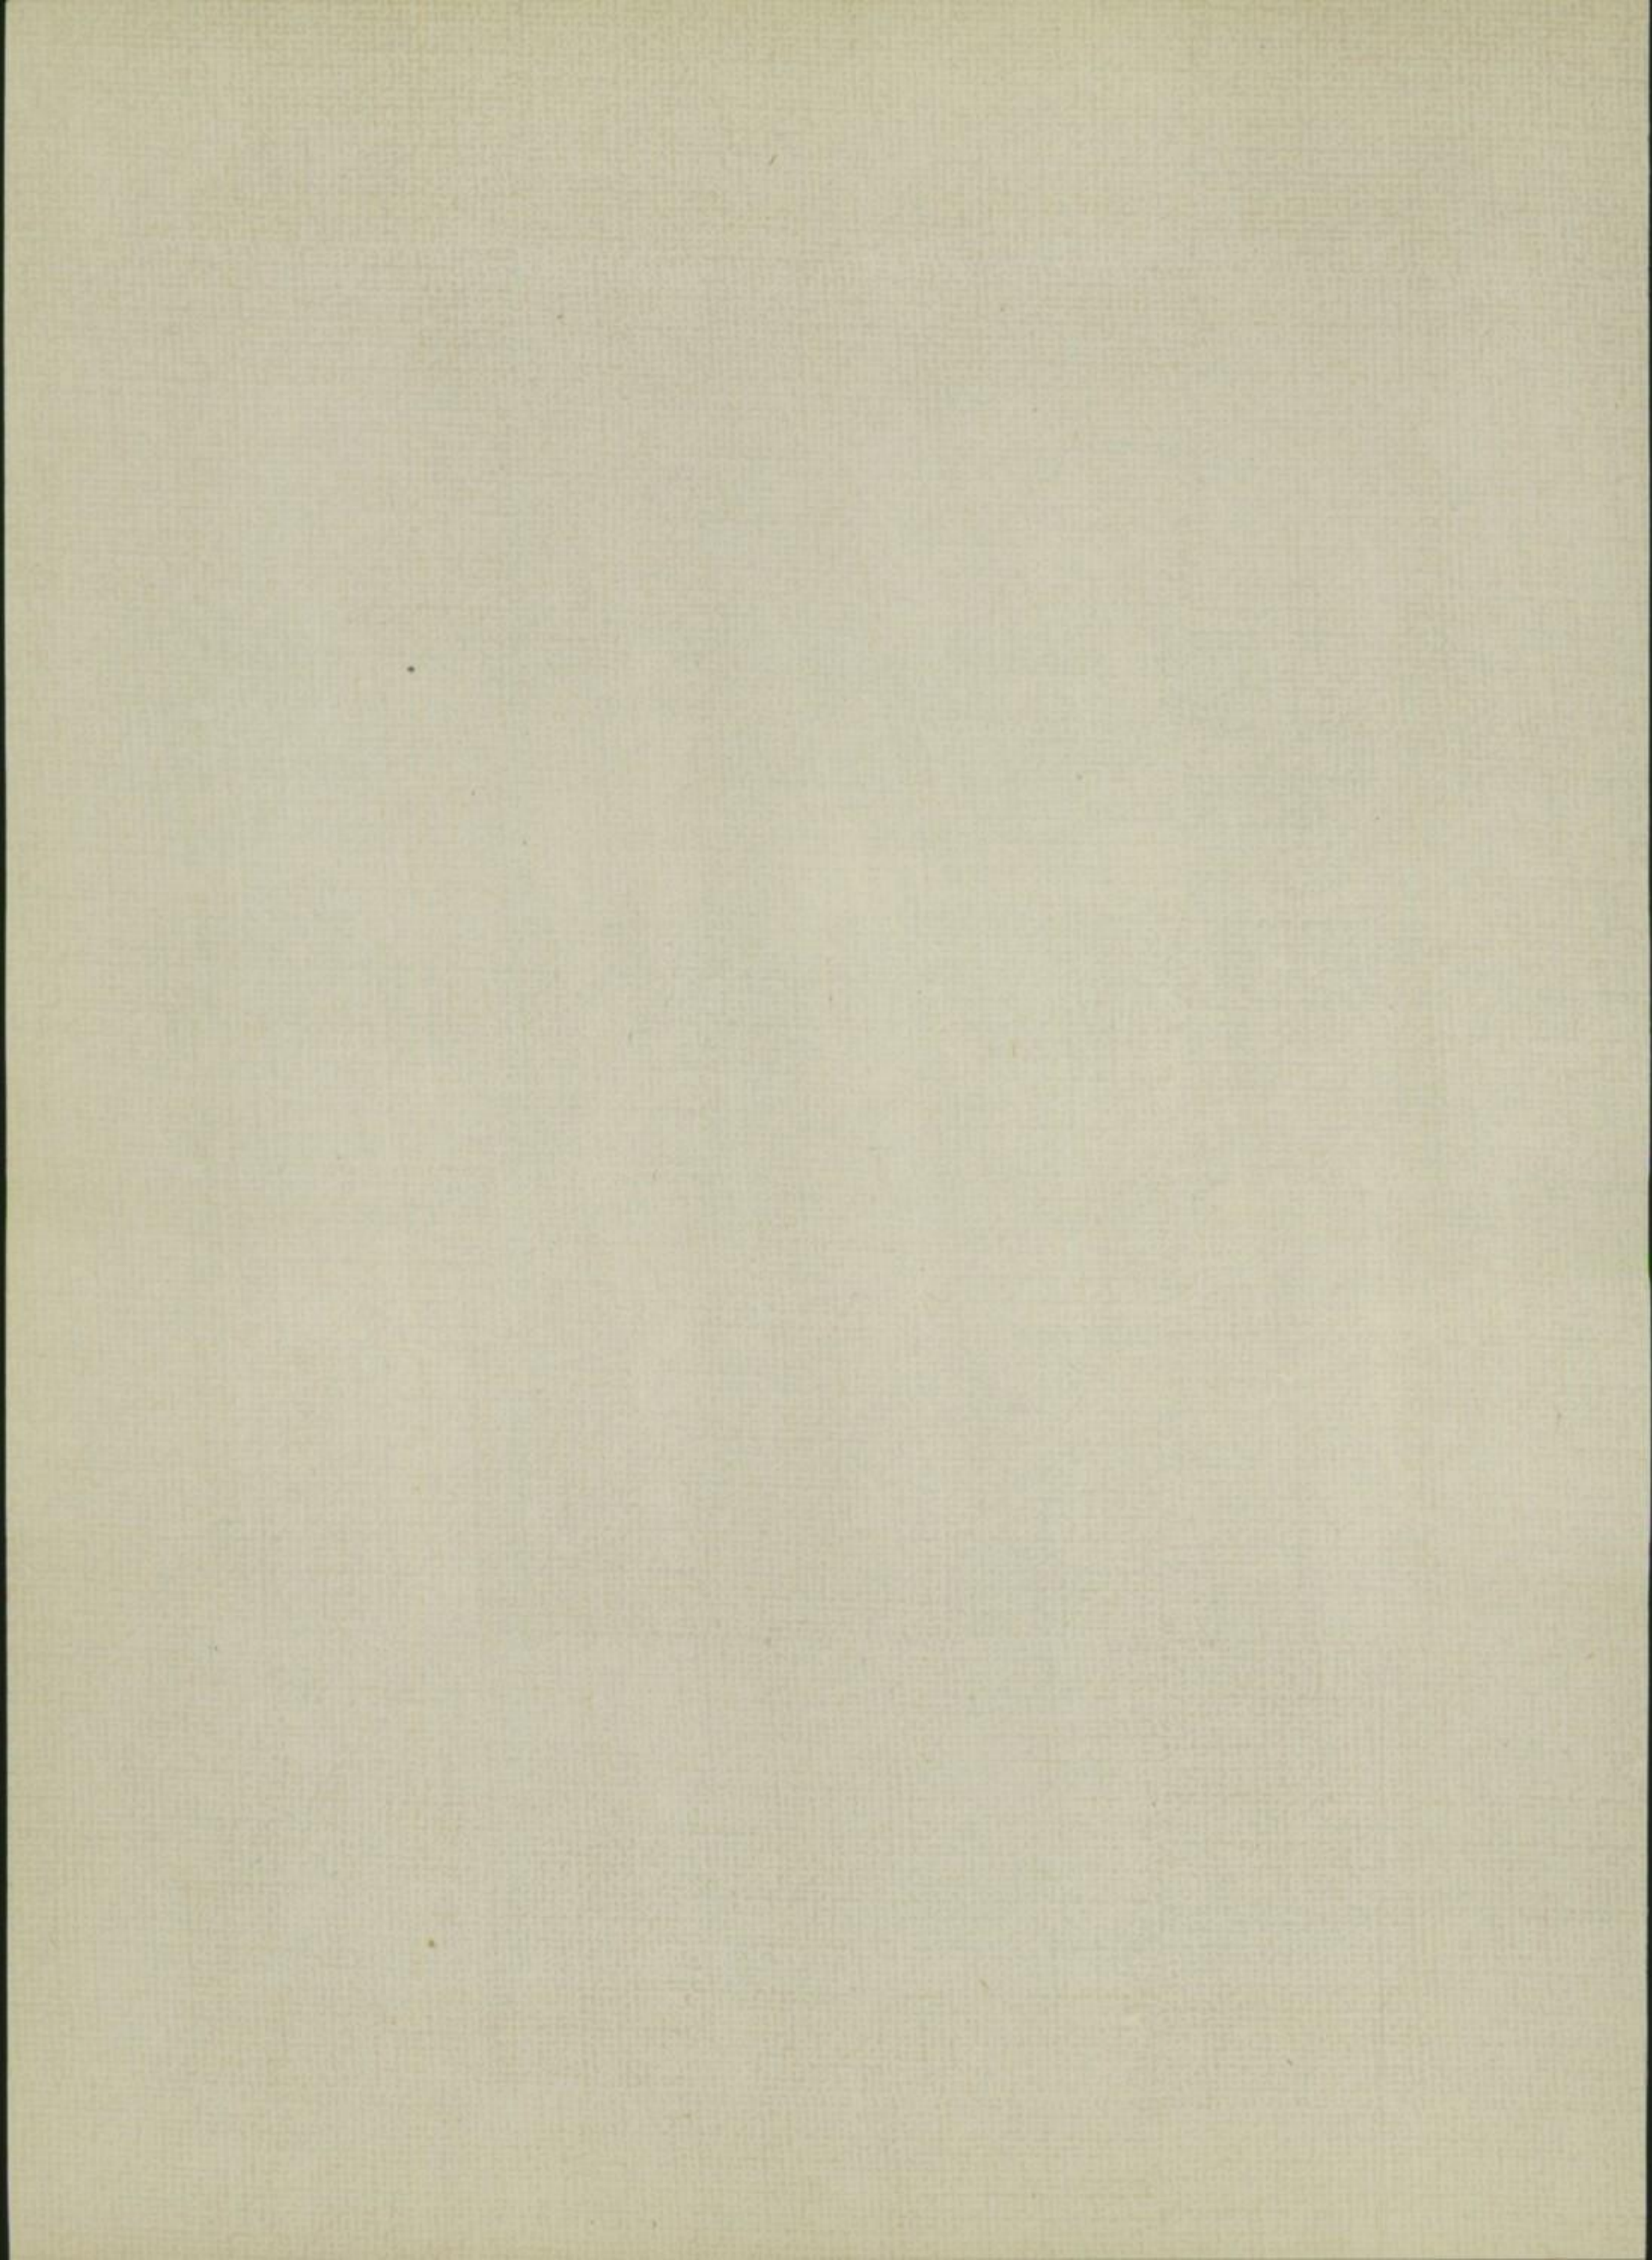

Powers that be finally found some thing that got the Burley's and Rollenhagen's to school on time. A little game of ping pong did the work. Both boys and girls played in the tournaments. Congratulations to the winners.

GET ACQUAINTED PARTY

One nice fall night a large bonfire was made on the ball diamond. The ninth grade initiation ceremony took place, games were played and songs were sung by all. The High School enjoyed this get acquainted party at which the seniors served coke, apples, and hot dogs.

COPPER CARNIVAL

Bang! Bang! The Copper Carnival put on this year was a huge success. Everyone enjoyed themselves and the amateur show was entertaining.
